ALASKA TOURIST SCHEME SUGGESTED

Study of Prince Rupert's participation in a proposed South-eastern tourist committee, as proposed by the Alaska Development Board, has been referred by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce to the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council. A letter on the matter from Ralph Browne of Juneau was read at the meeting of the Chamber Monday night by J. C. Gikler, chairman of the Alaska committee. Mr. Browne also referred to information that was being gathered in connection with possibilities of traffic through the Haines Cut-off to be delivered from Prince Rupert by a proposed ferry.

Ass'd. Boards Seeks Finances

Finance committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has been delegated to study methods of assisting the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia in financing itself.

The matter came up at the monthly meeting of the local Chamber Monday night with the reading of a letter from George Ogston of Vanderhoof, president of the Associated Boards, putting the matter squarely up to the member boards. It was a matter which concerned the very survival of the Associated Boards.

President L. M. Felsenthal suggested the possibility of individual business donations.
