BISHOP TO PAY VISIT AT WEEK-END—HELPING CHURCH REBUILDING FUND

Mrs. C. Houlden was the hostess at Thursday's meeting of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. H. Houlden. Mrs. West presided and it was announced that Bishop Gibson will arrive here on Saturday from Vanderhoof, where he spent Easter, and will conduct services in St. Matthew's Church on Sunday with Holy Communion in the morning. On Monday evening, a congregational meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. West at 8 o'clock at which the Bishop will be present. The request from the Diocesan Dorcas secretary for a cash donation as well as stockings for the children of St. Paul's Hostel will be met, plans were completed for the Woman's Auxiliary tea and sale to be held in the Orange Hall on May 7 and a musical program is being arranged. Delegates to the annual Diocesan meeting in Prince Rupert on June 2-3 are Mrs. West and Mrs. Maxted. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

For the purpose of helping the rebuilding of the United Church by supplying furnishings and equipment for the Sunday School an evening group for young women to be known as "Yettes" was organized last Tuesday evening at the church manse. Officers were elected and these are: President, Mrs. M. McDonald; Vice-President, Mrs. P. H. Mallett; Secretary, Mrs. G. Haugland; Treasurer, Miss Ina Smith; Social convener, Mrs. J. H. Smith. The first acti-

BOB FELLER FALLS DOWN

NEW YORK. (C)—Bob Feller's failure was the most disturbing note of the opening of the Major League baseball season which otherwise read like a carbon copy of 1949. Feller was yanked after two innings yesterday because of wildness and a sore arm. He yielded one run as Cleveland Indians lost to St. Louis Browns 5 to 1.

Big League crowds were slightly off but most of the games were held in smaller parks.

fighters who beat him. King had a few thousand dollars saved up when he came to the United States and he has added to it under the guidance of the two Franks. He had an expensive car when he arrived here but they told him to sell it. He did, without a squawk. In fact Wilson finds King hard to manage when it comes only to one thing. That's when there's boogie woogie music on the radio. "I've had to turn off his radio several times at 1 a.m. when we're up in the woods training," said Wilson. The Canadian fighter also is a piano player of a sort. You can guess the kind of music he plays—all by ear. The only sweet music he likes is the kind his gloves beat on an opponent. "That's real music," said Lt. Arthur "and I expect to hear a lot of it enroute to the championship."
