But because these first weeks are extra-busy for you, too... here's a tip—a meal to satisfy the biggest appetite—and it takes just minutes to prepare! It's delicious KRAFT DINNER. M-mmm! It's a real main dish. In every package of Kraft Dinner is a special, fast-cooking macaroni that cooks to fluffy lightness in only 7 minutes. And—in the same package, cheddar cheese, already grated, to sprinkle in for rich cheese flavour. For just a few pennies there are ample servings for four!

Water! It's full of needed nourishment... and you can make the most delicious nourishing soup easily and instantly by adding BOVRIL. Yes, the beefy flavour and goodness of Bovril, added to hot vegetable or potato water, makes a delicious soup... and it takes just a few minutes to make. Of course, only one of Jell-O's seven sparkling "locked-in" flavours may be used—and enjoyed. I like to keep several packages of Jell-O Jelly Powders on hand for everyday and company dinners. The Skeena and Naas, Grenville Channel and Principe Channel salmon areas close to all salmon net fishing tomorrow at 6 p.m. The Butedale area closes to all salmon fishing at 5 p.m. Sunday, September 24. Pursue seine area number 1, near Masset, opens to salmon net fishing Sunday at 6 p.m., with the exception of Juskatla Inlet, which will remain closed. Volume of fish caught off the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands has slackened off considerably this week, and bad weather has slowed down boat movements and reduced catches somewhat on the east coast.

Lusty Outdoor Action Picture

A lusty action epic set against the roaring background of the southwest just before the turn of the century, "The Furies," with a stellar cast, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Friday and Saturday. It is the exciting story of a fabulous cattle baron who bought his ranch empire with guns and ruled through violence. This role is played by Walter Huston and the picture was the last before his death. As Huston's beautiful but self-willed daughter, Barbara Stanwyck has an outdoor role for the first time in many pictures. Leading man is Wendell Corey whose part is that of a two-fisted owner of a gambling house and dance hall. Based on a novel of the same name, the picture was largely filmed on location in Arizona. The supporting cast includes Judith Anderson, Gilbert Roland, Thomas Gomez, Beulah Bondi, Blanche Yurka and Albert Dekker.

Boycott On Cargo Lifted

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaders of Atlantic Coast longshoremen today lifted their boycott of Soviet satellite cargoes but delayed decision as to whether to resume handling of Russian cargoes. Longshoremen have been refusing to handle cargoes in protest against Communist aggression in Korea.

Smiles 'n' Chuckles

I asked the priest in our village if, during his early years in the priesthood, he hadn't often regretted the restrictions placed on his relationship with the attractive young women of his congregation.

"More often than I care to remember," he answered. "However, when I view many of these same good women today, I am strongly reminded of God's great wisdom and mercy."

When the last guest had gone after the wedding of my youngest daughter, I sat down in the living room and wept bitterly. I felt utterly bereft. For 25 years my three girls—their health, education, clothes, friends and pleasures—had completely absorbed my time, energy and thought.

My husband, whistling softly, strolled in. "Oh, Tom," I sobbed, "what am I going to do? All three of the children gone!"

"There was a moment's silence, then my husband asked, "Has it ever occurred to you that you might try getting married?" From "Life's Like That."

While I was visiting my brother in Sherman, Texas, a census-taker told us of this experience. Her territory included a slum section, and as she walked down the block one day the woman she had just interviewed came running after her.

"I done made a mistake, lady," she panted. "I give you my insurance age, 36. I got to give the Government my old-age-pension age—that's 42." From "Life's Like That." The Reader's Digest.

Conservatives Coming Back

CALGARY—The Progressive-Conservative party may actively participate in the Alberta political field again after an absence of several years. A candidate may be nominated in the forthcoming by-election in Olds riding, J. Ross Henderson of Calgary, head of the party for the province, states.

announced: "It's a boy—six feet tall and 185 pounds."

When Miss Hazel, a semi-invalid living in a downtown hotel, suddenly began receiving a stream of telephone calls, there was much curiosity among the personnel. A strict rule forbade listening in on any guest's conversation, but when the manager paid his monthly call to collect the rent he risked an inquiry about the recent activity of her telephone.

"Yes, isn't it wonderful?" Miss Hazel said happily. "I get so tired sitting here day after day with no one to talk to that I had my sister stick one of these tiny labels onto a menu each time she ate in a restaurant. So far I've found that the so-called wolve is pretty nice at heart."

The tiny label she handed the manager read: Lonely? Call Miss Hazel Main 2202, Room 42.
