PITY THE POOR TROUT ON A DAY LIKE THIS! — Though the trout season in Eastern Canada was not yet open, many enthusiasts got in some early fishing by crossing the border, where the season opened earlier in some localities. The opening of the trout season at Hackensack, N.J., brought out more anglers than fish. The Isaak Waltons here are trying their luck in the Musconetcong river.

HOLEEACH, Lincolnshire, Eng. — A 10-year-old Shorthorn cow, owned by Miss I. D. Sturton, has given 14,000 gallons of milk in 305 days to win the British championship of her breed. The cow's yield is so generous that she is milked three times daily instead of twice.

PLAN EMPIRE DAY PROGRAM

Distance of Conrad Street elementary school from the Capitol Theatre makes it difficult to shepherd the 200 small pupils from the school to attend the annual I.O.D.E. Empire Day observance to be held at the theatre on the morning of May 23 and, therefore, children of that school will hold a separate program.

Principal T. G. Bateman of Conrad Street School was granted permission by the School Board last night to hold a separate program at the school for that reason after being invited to join children of other schools in the theatre program. Principals of other schools favored the combined celebration, being closer to the downtown area.

The Board granted Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E. permission to take the children from their classrooms on the morning of May 23 for the patriotic celebration.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Olympia strengthened his Kentucky Derby stock in an easy victory over six horses in the one-mile Derby trial at Churchill Downs. He covered the six furlongs in 1:10 1/5, a track record.
