FAN TANS

Measure into large bowl, 1/2 c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle slowly with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 min., THEN stir well. Scald 1 c. milk and stir in 5 lbs. granulated sugar, 2 tps. salt; cool to lukewarm. Add to yeast mixture and stir in 1/2 cup lukewarm water. Beat in 3 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat well. Beat in 4 tbs. melted shortening. Work in 3 c. more once-sifted bread flour. Knead until smooth and elastic; place in greased bowl and brush top with melted butter or shortening. Cover and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, grease top and let rise again until nearly doubled. Punch down dough and roll out, half at a time, into a rectangle a scant 1/4" thick; lift dough, cover with cloth and let rest 5 min. Brush with melted butter or shortening; cut into strips 1 1/2" wide. Pile 7 strips together; cut into 1/2" pieces. Place cut-side up in greased muffin pans; separate slices a little at top. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven, 400°, 15-20 min.

Gets Call Over Shrine Club Carnival in Giving of Carnival Dates

The Prince Rupert Shrine Club was not granted its carnival dates of July 20 to 29 by city council last night. Council felt the Shrine Club dates were too close to the dates of the Civic Centre Carnival, August 19 to 26.

Council members felt both were worthy organizations but, as the Civic Centre was a community enterprise and worked for the city throughout the year, protection should be given it.

Representing the Civic Centre Dr. R. G. Large said the Civic Centre and the Shrine Club had discussed the matter fully. The Shrine Club, he said co-operated fully, but added that the situation was not changed as far as the Civic Centre was concerned.

"We feel we need adequate protection previous to our dates," he stated. He asked council to continue extending the protection.

If the Shrine dates were granted

ed, he said, it was doubtful if the Civic Centre could stage a carnival.

Representing the Shrine Club, W. D. Smith presented a statement which was read to members by City Clerk H. D. Thain.

"The Shrine Club is eminently satisfied that its carnival provides a type of entertainment for children of a high class order and believes that this entertainment will not be otherwise available in Prince Rupert," the statement said.

It stated that the Shrine Club is satisfied that the Civic Centre could safely extend its date one week, thus putting a month between the two engagements.

A straightforward telegram was received by the city clerk from Henry Meyerhoff of Crescent Shows from Vancouver April 20.

Following are excerpts from the wire:

"Seems to me that Prince Rupert should assist Crescent Shows to play Rupert instead of trying to prevent us giving citizens some good amusements. Working people who look forward to modern side shows and riding devices are unable to take their children to Vancouver to P.N.E. as the wealthier parents do."

"... these two differently operated fairs will not conflict or does the Civic Centre want to hog it all? Impossible to change Crescent Shows dates, and if you do not give Crescent permission, why we will have to pass up Rupert."

Impressive Service

TERRACE—(Special to Daily News)—In the name of the United Church I receive these keys in token of the trust you have placed in us. With these words Rev. H. Stewart Forbes received the keys of the new Knox United Church as they were delivered to him by Mrs. I. Frank.

Dedication services of the Church, built by voluntary efforts during the past year, to replace the old Church which was gutted by fire fifteen months ago, took place on Sunday evening with the Church packed to its doors.

Rev. H. Stewart Forbes B.A. DD., of Ocean Falls, chairman of the Prince Rupert, Presbytery, officiated with Rev. P. Mallett of Terrace assisting.

The beautiful chancel furnishings were presented for dedication by Mrs. J. H. Smith in memory of her father, the late O. T. Sundal, and the centuries old bell given by the Dutch newcomers was presented for dedication by Mr. Brands.

In his dedication sermon Mr. Forbes spoke of the magnificent work that had been accomplished here where beauty had arisen from ashes. Many had given sacrificially and a church had been built free of debt to the glory of God. "A debt of gratitude is owing to the people of the community who have helped and this church is for them all, members, non-members and natives alike," he declared. "Let it stand as a symbol that today is a day of good tidings."

Roger Campbell was soloist, singing "Bless This House". Two anthems were rendered by the choir with H. Philip as soloist in one Mrs. C. J. Norrington was accompanist for the service.

This service concluded the week end activities in the church to commemorate the dedication.

A banquet was held Saturday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall for the members and adherents and all who had helped with the building of the church.
