C. A. Berner, divisional superintendent, Canadian National Railways, is leaving on this evening's train for a trip to Smithers on official duties.

Meeting of International Union of Operating Engineers Local 510, will be held Friday, August 27, in the Carpenter's Hall at 8:00 p. m.

Flying Officer Jarvis McLeod, Jr. arrived in the city on Tuesday night's train from Ontario to spend leave with his family here.

Miss Dorothy Kergin is sailing tomorrow night on the Prince George for Vancouver where she will enter the nurses' training school of Vancouver General Hospital.

D. G. Miles, who recently transferred from Winnipeg to become British Columbia sales manager of Imperial Oil Co. Ltd., and H. D. Foster, coastal and Cariboo district manager for the company, sailed last night by the Prince Rupert on their return to Vancouver after spending a couple of days visiting the local branch.

They had flown north since the first of the week to visit the company's various stations along the coast.

E. C. Craigen, of Powell River, grand master of the Oddfellows' Lodge for British Columbia, will arrive in the city on the Camosun Sunday evening from the south and, accompanied by W. C. McKenzie, district deputy grand master here, will leave by car on Monday to officially visit the lodge there that evening.

Mr. Craigen will return here on Tuesday to visit the local lodge that night and will then proceed to Smithers, Prince George and other interior points. Mr. Craigen is electrical superintendent for the Powell River Co. at Powell River.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. McAllister arrived in the city from the interior last night and proceeded on the Prince Rupert to Vancouver enroute to Montreal. Mr. McAllister is going to McGill University after having been stationed at Terrace for the past two years as United Church pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Smith were among visitors in the city yesterday for the Port Day celebration. They motored back home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crowe-Swords were passengers aboard the Prince Rupert last night returning to Vancouver after a week's visit to Ketchikan in which district Mr. Crowe-Swords has mining interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Dyer, after a week's visit to the city with Mr. Dyer's brother-in-law and sister, Mrs. P. M. Ray, sailed by the Prince Rupert last night on their return to Longview, Washington.

Mrs. Jordan and Miss Joan Pearson were door prize winners at the Civic Centre Carnival Wednesday night. Again there was a good crowd to enjoy the stage show, dance, carnival features and other attractions.

Considerable interest was taken in the bathing suit which Miss Margaret Brain (Miss P. N. E.) wore in the picture shown in the Daily News yesterday. It was a Rose Marie Reid original swimsuit in star faille lastex supplied through arrangements by Wallace's department store of this city.

J. Harry Black, Richard Long, George Hooy, Mickey Fudger and Johnny Garofani are leaving by car tomorrow for a holiday motor trip to the Manson Creek country, Prince George and Telkwa.

One of the two totem poles to stand by the entrance to the museum was erected yesterday. It is somewhat lower than the height of the building but is, nevertheless, well toward the top and makes a fine impression for an institution like a museum. The second pole will be placed in position, possibly by today.
