HEALTH TALK IN COMMONS

OTTAWA—A surprise debate on national health insurance sprang up in Commons today with the C.C.F. party asking the government point-blank when it is going to inaugurate its promised health insurance plan.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, tipped the Chamber into developing the debate when he asked Health Minister Paul Martin if the government is in favor of such a program and when it is going to take the initiative in bringing it about.

FATHER ANSWERS CITY OFFICER'S JAYCEE GREETING

Lieut. M. J. Stapleton, commanding officer of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals station here is a Newfoundland and as a member of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce he has led in the exchange of good wishes between city Jaycees and his home town of Harbor Grace.

Thursday, the Junior Chamber of Commerce sent a message of welcome to the Harbor Grace Town Council.

President S. G. Furk has received a warm reply. It said: "From oldest colony and youngest province, we thank you for your kind wishes and hope federation will be to the mutual benefit of dad and infant."

It was signed: "M. P. Stapleton, chairman, Town Council, Harbor Grace." He is the father of Lieut. Stapleton.

Lieut. Stapleton said that he had no knowledge that his father had won the civic distinction of town chairman.

It's a Pleasure...

... to Cook Electrically

IT'S SO CLEAN: you can keep your pots and pans spic and span, the range spotless, with little effort. IT'S DEPENDABLE: when you turn on the elements, you get even, invariable heat that requires no watching. IT'S SAFE: no fear of tiny fingers turning keys that might cause harm, and IT'S ECONOMICAL: the cost of cooking electrically, is less than half a cent per meal per person.

Be sure to look over the new electric ranges at your first opportunity.
