CHOIRS LEAD UNITED CHURCH MUSIC SERVICE

A musical service, featuring hymns and anthems by the junior and senior choirs and a baritone solo by Dr. R. G. Large, was enjoyed by the congregation of First United Church Sunday evening. Rev. R. A. Wilson, in a brief sermon, spoke of the relationship of music to religious worship.

Anthems were sung separately and together by the two choirs which numbered 27 voices and were directed by J. S. Wilson. The musical order included the anthem "Birds are Singing" by the junior choir, "Hills of the North, Rejoice" by the senior choir, "Onward Christian Soldiers" by the combined choirs and the solo "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way" by Dr. R. G. Large.

Rev. Mr. Wilson used as his sermon text a passage from the Book of Ephesians "Be filled with the Spirit, Speaking to yourselves in Psalms and Hymns and Spirited Songs, Singing and Making Melody in your hearts to the Lord."

The pastor pointed out that the Christian faith is "a singing faith—ever expressing itself in song."

"The music of the church expresses a faith which gives meaning to life and grants greater richness," he declared.

"We are familiar," he continued, "with Jesus' condemnation of the scribes who 'devoured' widows' houses and, for a pretence of piety, made long prayers. But we are in a bitter position if we fail to support our songs of praise with lives that praise God in daily living"

Mrs. W. S. Stewart, who has been paying a visit in the city with friends, is sailing tonight by the Princess Adelaide on her return to Vancouver. She is the wife of the Canadian Pacific Railway ticket agent in the Hotel Vancouver.
