

ROYAL EXILES ON SWISS FAIRWAY—King Leopold of Belgium and his consort, Princess de Rethy, pause smilingly for a photographer during a round of golf at a golf course in Samaden, Switzerland. King Leopold is rumored to have made several attempts to pave the way for his return to the Belgian throne, but the Belgian parliament has so far barred all such efforts.

Smiles'n Chuckles

All adult persons in the State of Michigan would doubtless have been profoundly disturbed if they had read the headlines in the Lansing "State Journal" at the time the death penalty became part of the state law. It announced, "Senate Passes Death Penalty. Measure Provides for Electrocution of All Persons Over 17."

Little five-year old Jimmy was walking along the street with little Betty, four. As they were about to cross the street, Jimmy remembered his mother's teaching.

"Let me hold your hand," he offered, gallantly.

"Okay," replied Betty, "but I want you to know you're playing with fire."

One wrong letter was seemingly the cause of a most unusual charge being laid against a Raleigh, North Carolina, police officer. The "News and Observer" came out with the startling announcement: Officer Convicted of Accepting Bride.

Wife to husband who had a few drinks too many: "No, I can't forgive you, Archibald. If this were the first time it would be different, but you came home in the same condition in November, 1918."

She was only a trainman's daughter—plain loco and no motive.

State College alumni attending a dinner in Raleigh, N.C., were asked to name their professions.

One shy young undertaker, fearing the derision of the crowd when he told his calling, answered smoothly, "I'm a southern planter."

Old Lady (to librarian)—"I'd like a nice book."

Librarian: "Here's one about the cardinal."

O.L.—"I'm not interested in religion."

L.—"But this is a bird."

O.L.—"I'm not interested in his private life, either."

Jean: "I bet that man was embarrassed when you caught him looking through the transom."

Jane: "Gosh, yes. I thought he'd never get over it."

Hospital Visitor: "I just heard those two nurses saying some mean things to you."

Patient: "Yeh, they've had me on the pan ever since I've been here."

A girl and her aunt worked in an auto factory. A thug grabbed their salary envelopes one day. The girl found a cop and gasped: "I've been robbed of my pay and my aunt's pay."

"Cut the piglatin," snapped the officer, "and tell me what really happened."

She: "How did you like the bridge party last night?"

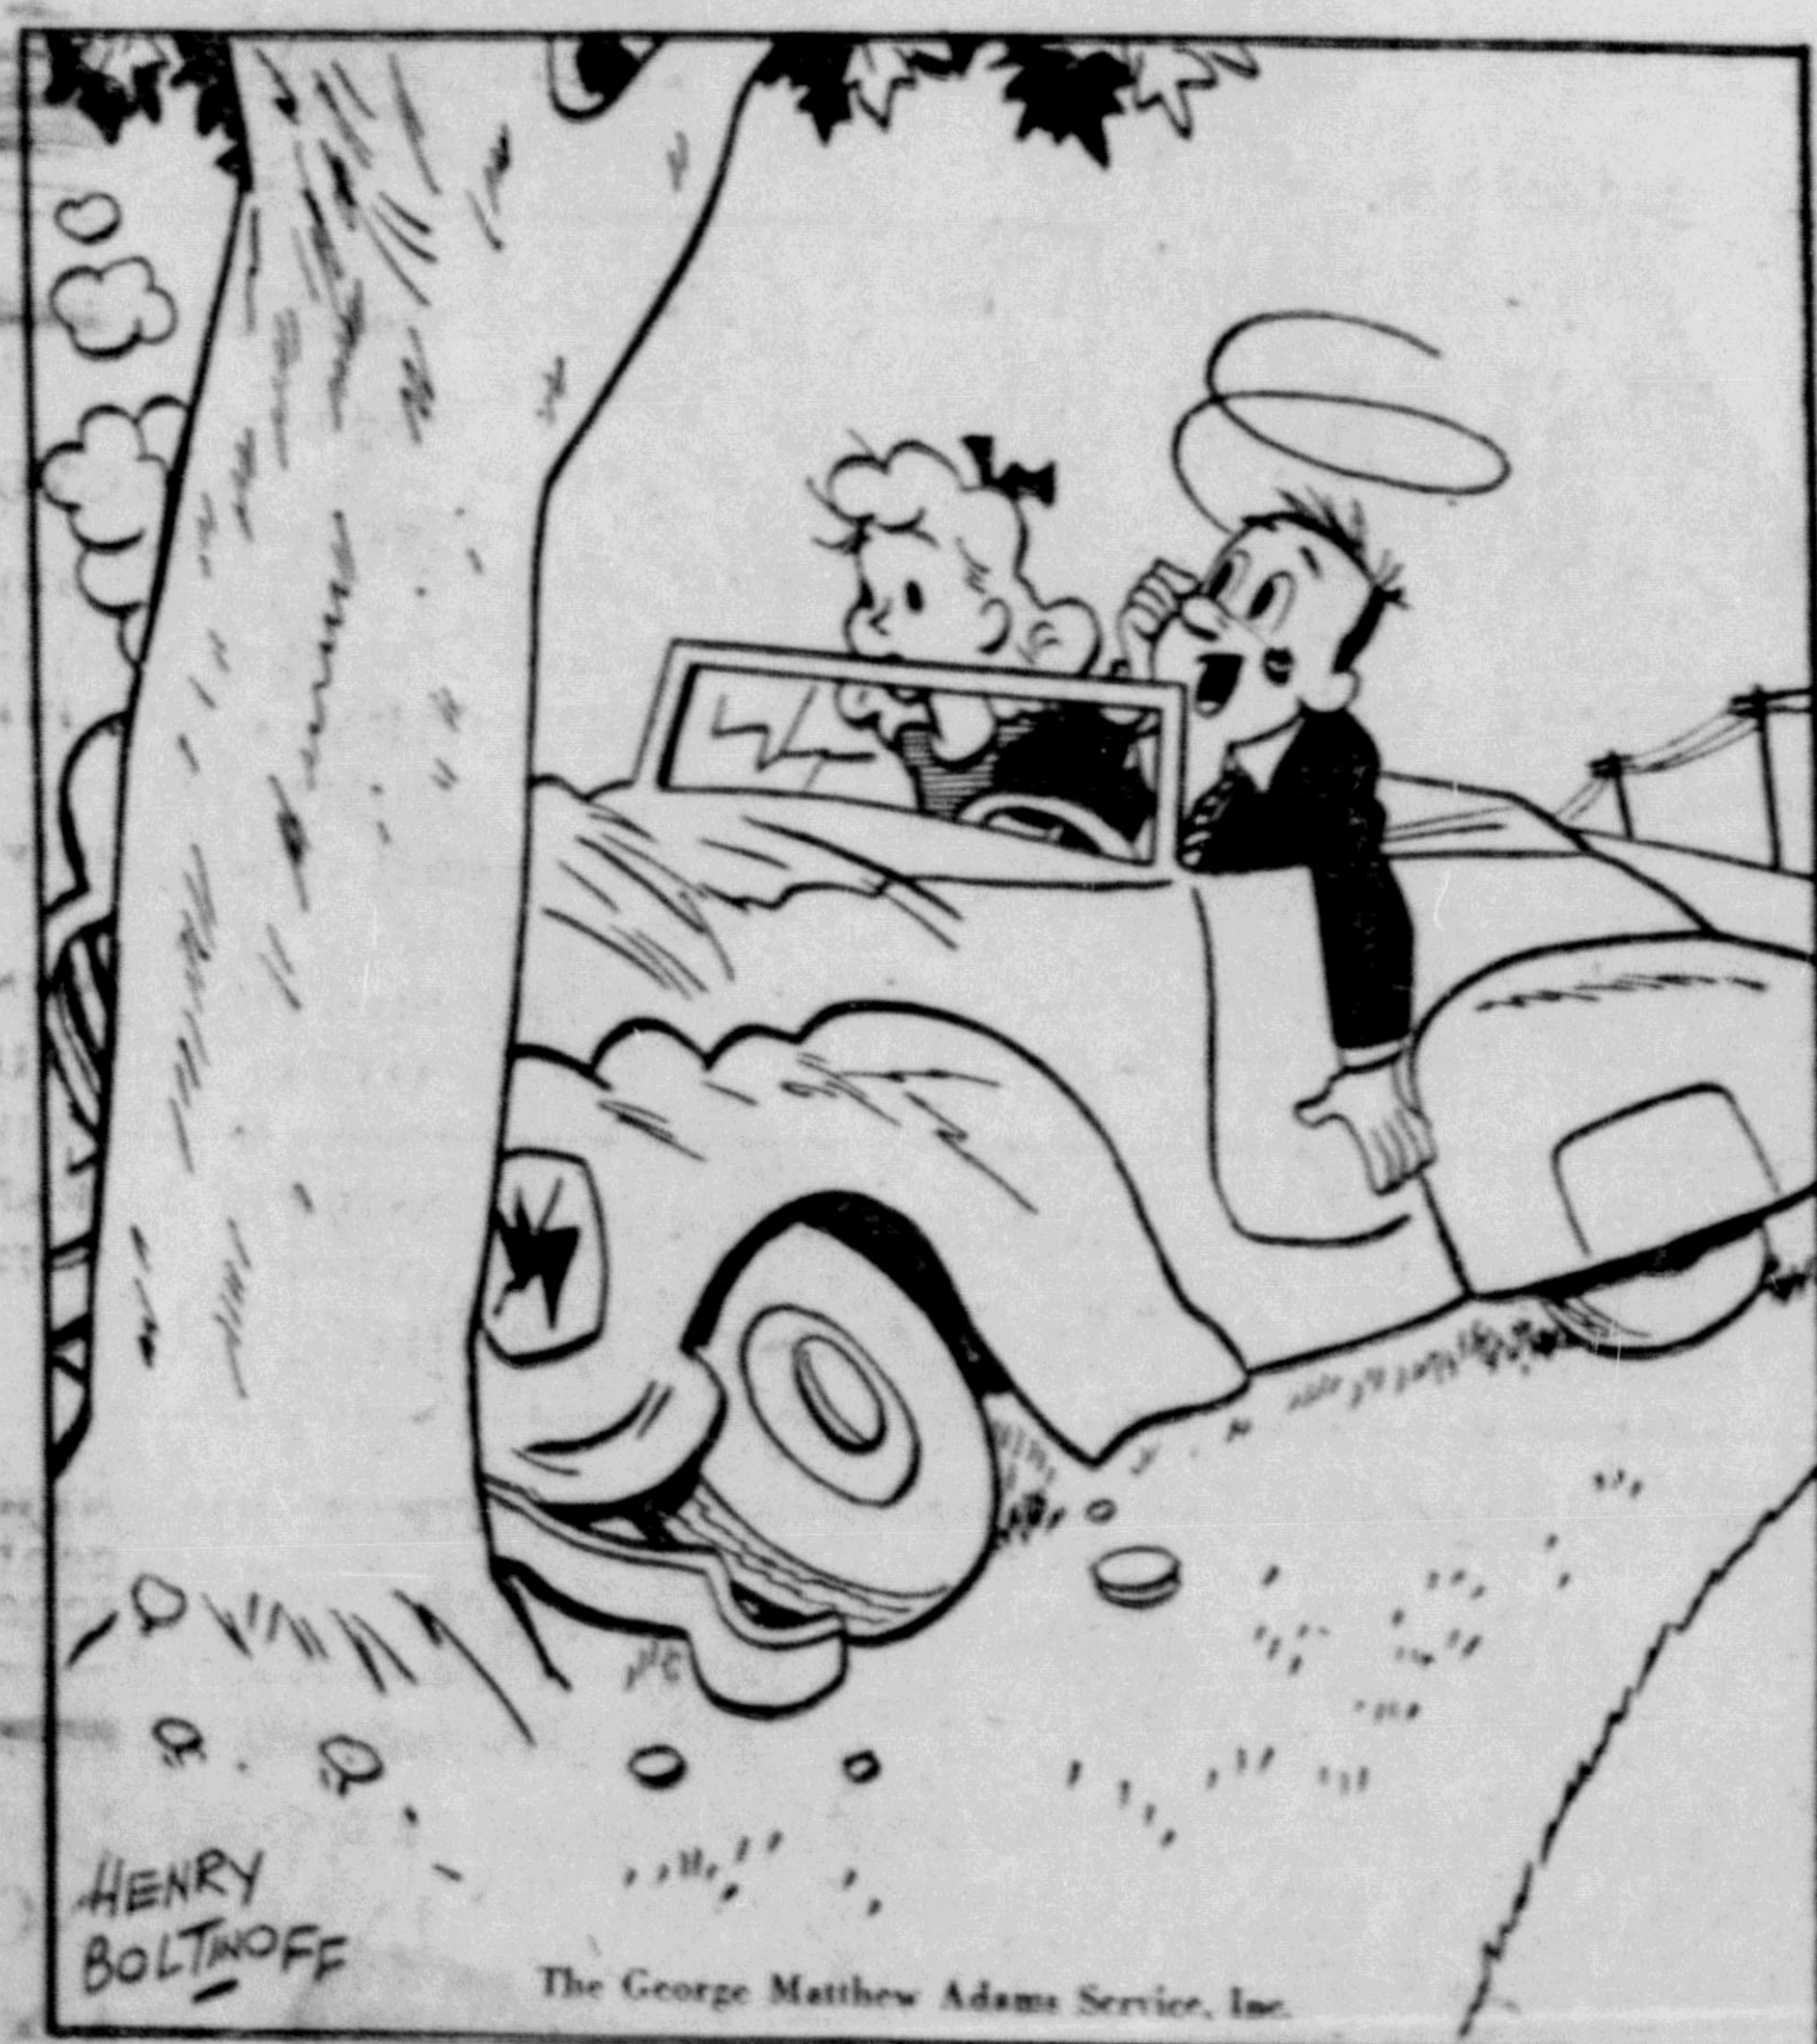

He: "It was fine until the cops looked under the bridge."

Mother: "Now, Junior, be a good boy and say 'Ah-h-h' so the doctor can get his finger out of your mouth."

MONTREAL, C. — Juveniles serving sentences at the Mont St. Antoine reformatory will get a better chance to learn a trade and study special courses designed to "rehabilitate delinquent teen-agers." The Quebec department of youth and social welfare has turned the reformatory into a modern arts and trade school.

KINSMEN BUSY ON T.B. SEALS

Members of the Kinsmen Club and their guests were figuratively up to their ears in T.B. Christmas seals, promotional letters and envelopes last night at the club's regular meeting held in the Commodore Cafe.

Herb Young, chairman of the T.B. seals committee, and Ed. Garner, in charge of entertainment, organized members and guests in teams of fours and handed each team equal amounts of addressed envelopes to stuff with seals and letters.

In order to spur the men to greater efforts in the essential work, a prize was offered to the team finishing their task first. Consolation prizes were presented to the other teams.

At the business session Wes Manning reported that gross receipts from the Shell-out campaign was approximately $390, and when expenses are taken care of the club should show a net profit of about $100.

Following a discussion the members voted in favor of holding the Kinsmen's annual Amateur Night during the last week of November.

Guests of the club at last night's meeting were Les Willington of Vancouver, Lorne Vanetta and Ted Smith. President George Dibb occupied the chair.

TERRIFIC SPEED

The forward speed of a tornado ranges from a few miles to nearly 150 miles an hour.

FIVE REUNITED

WESTBOURNE, Man., C. — Five daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Chantler, pioneer residents of Westbourne, were reunited for a short visit after a separation of 30 years. The sisters are all married and have been living in different Western Canada communities.

No Action Taken On Oleomargarine

No action was taken at the recent annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce at Vancouver on the subject of manufacture and sale of oleomargarine in Canada since the matter was now before the courts, Dr. R. G. Large stated at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. Question on the subject was asked by Frank Skinner who referred to the increasing price and growing scarcity of butter.

UEFB MOBILIZES TO GIVE BRITAIN STRENGTH ... IN COLD WAR TO WIN THE PEACE

REASON FOR UEFB

The Fund resulted from an investigation by groups interested in British relief. By centralizing buying and transportation, including delivery at destination, substantial savings could be effected. The scattered efforts of many could be channelled into an efficient single stream of relief, without a loss of individuality as to persons, groups or organizations. Actual savings of 24 to 30% in shipping and handling cost alone have been estimated—meaning larger parcels of food for the same cost, the elimination of private competition for scarce items, more rapid and efficient delivery.

MORE AID PER DOLLAR

For example: the cost of placing a ready packaged 10 lb. parcel in the hands of a recipient in Britain, exclusive of content purchase price, is approximately $2.50 at present, whereas through UEFB concessions the comparable cost would be 57c to 79c. This economy does not include the very substantial saving which bulk purchasing effects.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

Other organizations are not given this national service nor are they obtaining the very large concessions which the co-operating Governments have assured UEFB. However, the Fund facilities are available to every group or organization at present extending aid to Britain.

GOVERNMENT AID

The Canadian Government is placing at the UEFB disposal, as far as they can, warehouse and other facilities. The Government, the railways and several members of Provincial Transportation Associations are co-operating in giving UEFB a preferential freight rate to Canadian ports.

The gallant people of Britain are suffering today because they are determined to win the cold war. They are the only nation in Europe fighting with body and mind to vanquish the spectre that haunts the Old World.

The people of Britain are not complaining. But their health is being weakened . . . their efficiency impaired . . . by the tremendous restrictions they have imposed upon themselves. In their determination to win the cold war, they stand in danger of being defeated by undernourishment.

Undernourishment is the greatest danger of every person living in Britain today. Why? Because Britain imports four-fifths less goods than before the war, yet exports more than half as much again as in 1939.

Says the British Ministry of Food:

"... we are living on marginal nutritional standards, and there is cause for anxiety lest this should be having adverse effects on physique and health . . . Everything you can send us is wanted and urgently wanted."

YOU can't afford to let the British people down. If they go under YOU, and all of us, will feel the effects. We need a strong Britain to help fight the cold war. Give generously to UEFB—TODAY.

YOU can join with EVERY other Canadian in helping Britain fight this enemy. UEFB offers you the best means of making your aid to Britain effective now.

UEFB is a voluntary organization set up to collect, forward and distribute aid to the undernourished men, women and children of Britain. UEFB purchases supplies in bulk. The British Government supplies free transportation. And through the UEFB British Advisory Council you can be sure that your dollars will buy what is most needed for those who need it the most.

Although UEFB has no facilities at present to handle used clothing, arrangements are being made to put these into operation early next year.
