League basketball Tuesday night had excitement, color and closeness. The games provided everything for the enjoyment ment of a large number of fans.

The Senior game saw Co-op defeating Brownwoods 63 to 53 for their second win which kept them on top of the loop. The first quarter started off fast with one team matching the other for baskets. Co-op, led by MacPhee, took a three-point lead 16 to 13. The fast-breaking game continued with Brownwoods fighting hard to take the lead. They tied the score 21 to 21 with 5 minutes to go but from then on Co-op pulled into a lead which they never let go. The half ended 36-27 for Co-op. The first half pace was fast and furious, set by Brownwoods, and, at times, got the better of the players, leading to rough and aggressive playing. Every ball was fought for and it was Brownwood's poor passing and shooting that was their downfall. Co-op, with their wealth of experience to draw on, played a steady, hard-driving half. The third quarter kept up the terrific pace with Brownwoods striving hard to cut down the lead. However, Co-op kept on scoring as their forwards drove through the shoemen's defense. The final quarter saw Co-op relaxing and Brownwoods putting on a final drive that cut the margin to 10 points at the final whistle.

The referees, to keep the game under control, had to bench Pierce and Lindsay for too aggressive playing.

Outstanding in the game was MacPhee, who showed the fans he could still score points and play a heads-up ball game. Holkestad displayed good ball-handling and shooting, especially of set shots, which is becoming lost in the one-handed orgy of shots today. Beynon, in his first game, played his usual good defensive style. Fitch was strong on defense. Shier and Thompson were tops offensively for Brownwoods. Both these players came through with shots that had the fans cheering. Brownwoods, who rely mainly on a strong offensive game, had a defense which left much to be desired.

Co-op took 92 shots and scored 26 field goals. Brownwoods made 23 field goals from 89 shots.

INTERMEDIATE

The Intermediate game was the most exciting of the evening. Fashion gained a victory over

OUT OF THE WEST—Calgary's swashbuckling Stampeders are just one big grin to ear as they huddle around Captain Poul Rowe (50) and quarterback Keith Smith their dressing room following their victory over Saskatchewan Roughriders who them the western championship. They now meet either Hamilton or Ottawa for the inion title. Rowe is holding the N.J. (Piffles) Taylor memorial tropny, emolematic supremacy. Spaith is clutching the Jeff Nicklin memorial trophy which he won as valuable player in the west.

NEWCOMER TO MAPLE LEAFS—Cal Gardner (left) and Bill Jacobs, newcomers to the Leaf rostrum this year, are talking things over prior to an N.H.L. tussle. Gardner is the lad taking Syl Apps' place between Esinicki and Watson, while Juzda has been recalled from the Pittsburg Hornets of the American League to strengthen the parent club.

Legion Billiard Tourney Resumes

After an interval of one week during which time the club rooms of the Canadian Legion have been devoted to activities in connection with "Legion Week," play in the English billiards handicap tournament was resumed during the weekend.

Geo. J. Dawes (plus 25) won over R. H. Simonson (minus 20) by a score of 150-76 only to go down to defeat in his next match with Alex Harvey (who had a handicap of minus 20) with a score of 106 to 150. Harvey played a steady game throughout, his best breaks being 23 and 25 (unfinished).

Alex Harvey went on to meet A. M. Hurst (scratch) in the semi-finals of this tournament and Hurst won over Harvey after an interesting game by 150 to 93.

Both players gave a good exhibition of the game, which was fairly even until nearing the century mark when Harvey failed to take advantage of some good opportunities and Hurst forged ahead to win. A well-played score of 23 by Harvey was the only break of the game.

A. M. Hurst will now meet James Nicoll in the final match of the tournament at a date to be announced this week. The game will be for 200 points, and, as both players are playing "scratch," a good match is anticipated.

Immediately on conclusion of this first tournament, lists will be opened for contestants in a second.
