May Clinch Trophy—

Bo-Me-Hi Heading Ketchikanward To Resume International Series

The Booth Memorial High School basketball team headed north to Ketchikan on the Princess Norah today in quest of the First National Bank international goodwill trophy. They have a big lead over their Ketchikan rivals in the fact that they have already won two games of the four game series. They play the third game tonight and a win gives them the trophy. If they lose tonight but win tomorrow night they will still retain the trophy and if they lose both of their Ketchikan games, the series winner will be determined on the total point score of the four game series. Bo-Me-Hi carries an eighteen point lead into the series.

Coach Jack Evans will start tonight's game with his second string, playing Lawrence Kristmanson at centre, Bud Ratchford and Danny Bill forwards, Jack Sharpe and Bill McChesney guards. The first string has Sid Scherk at centre, Glen Carlson and Mickey Webster forwards, and Ray Spring and Eric Moore guards.

If the trophy is won on tonight's game Saturday's game will be an exhibition one.

After a rest on Sunday the boys will travel to Metlakatla for a game with the strong Vets team on Monday evening.

Travelling with the team are nine members of the School Routers Club. Bill Harvey, Mona Lykegaard, Ann Stromdahl,

Lenora Faught, Beth Astoria, May Leask, Joyce Tattersall, Madeline Youngma and Benita Windle. The whole party will be supervised by Jack Evans, High School physical director and coach

MAYBE HE SHOULD HAVE "SAT THIS ONE OUT"—Theodore Medina, gentleman at the right, French bantamweight champion, had a very busy, if not dizzy fight on his hands when he encountered Manuel Ortiz, bantamweight champion of the world. During a 10-round, non-title bout, at Paris, France, Medina was up and down (five times), so much, that he had the appearance of an elevator. It was during his last trip to the bottom that judges came up to give decision to Ortiz.
