

STANDS ON HIS OWN TWO FEET—Little Richard Roberge, son of Petty Officer and Mrs. Albert Roberge of Victoria and New Westminster, believes in standing on his own two feet. Since the age of three months he has been able to balance on his father's outstretched hand. Above, four-month old Richard displays his talent while his parents look on proudly.

Funeral Of Mrs. Pifford

B. C. Undertakers chapel was filled Thursday afternoon and many were forced to remain outside as friends and relatives of the late Mrs. Jennie Pifford gathered to pay final tributes. Mrs. Pifford, mother of five children, died early Saturday morning as a result of drowning.

The service was officiated by Rev. L. G. Sieber and the hymns "Abide With Me" and "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" were accompanied by Mrs. J. C. G. L. Floral tributes were numerous. Interment took place in the Fairview Cemetery under the direction of B. C. Undertakers.

Funeral home, 404 McBride St.

Palbearers were Frank McGowan, Arthur Bremner, Cecil Robinson, James Atkins, Kenneth Robinson and Moses Williams.

R. Van der Sluis, left by plane today for a brief trip to Vancouver.

along the Buyways

The men of Prince Rupert are all talking about the smart new Bond suits that the Rupert Men's and Boys' Store is now displaying for spring wear. Priced to suit every pocket book and styled to please every taste, these suits are well worth a look.

George Cook, jeweller, is showing off the new Ronson Table lighter trio. Three fine lighters designed for home or office, they are named the Queen Anne, Newport and the Crown and would certainly make an appropriate gift for the lady or gent.

But good... is what the Locker Plant's customers are saying about the new Burns Cut-up Fryers. Another delightful way to prepare chicken. All one has to do is pop 'em in the pan, listen to 'em sizzle and serve them piping hot.

The Acme Clothing Store has come up with another first in Rupert with the latest Kooly Coats in beautiful shades of green and blue. Made from heavy Gabardine and styled for sportsmen, Kooly Coats are taking the country by storm.

Richard Hudnut Egg Creme Shampoo always a popular shampoo with the ladies is now offering a free trial size bottle of Cream Rinse free with each bottle of shampoo. A real treat for the hair. Now at Ormes and Wallace Drugs.

Adjudicators For Festival

Stanley Bligh and Mrs. Audrey Johnston Coming

Stanley Bligh, music editor of the Vancouver Sun, will again adjudicate the musical entries in the Festival to be held here next month, according to word received by Mrs. P. A. J. Oldham, secretary of the Music and Drama Festival Association, the executive of which met in the Civic Centre on Wednesday evening.

The executive has also secured the services of Mrs. Audrey St. D. Johnston, from the Department of Education for the drama adjudication.

Mrs. W. E. Chapple, representing the Little Theatre group, expressed the hope that there would be more competition this year from other Drama groups either in the city or district.

A letter was read from a music company regretting inability to supply the musical scores for two classes listed in the 1950 Festival syllabus. Inasmuch as the test pieces were chosen from a suggested list proffered several months ago by the company as available music, the executive members felt some indignation, also realizing that it was too late to make changes.

Mrs. C. Anderson, Mrs. J. S. Black, Mrs. Kathleen Hill, Mrs. E. W. Becker, Henry Playm, R. D. Cleland, R. Joseph Olsen, Mrs. P. A. J. Oldham, secretary, and Canon Basil S. Prockter, President of the Association.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual General Meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association will be held in the Civic Centre, Common Lounge Room, on Friday, March 3rd, 1950, at 8.00 p.m.

Business: To receive President's report. To receive Auditor's report and Balance Sheet for 1949. To elect five members of the Board of Management. To appoint an auditor.

Membership fee is $1.00 per annum which may be paid at the hospital or left at Ormes Drugs prior to Monday, March 1st at 5.00 p.m. on which date the membership list will close.

D. C. STEVENSON, Administrator.

Because of the invaluable assistance he had rendered behind the scenes at past festivals, Canon Basil Prockter, chairman, stated that J. B. Densmore would make an excellent stage manager and agreed to, if possible, obtain his services in that capacity.

Present at Wednesday night's meeting were Mrs. W. E. Chapple, Mrs. C. Anderson, Mrs. J. S. Black, Mrs. Kathleen Hill, Mrs. E. W. Becker, Henry Playm, R. D. Cleland, R. Joseph Olsen, Mrs. P. A. J. Oldham, secretary, and Canon Basil S. Prockter, President of the Association.

WOMAN IS FLOWN HERE FOR SURGERY

Making a mercy flight to the city with Mrs. Wilfrid Brown, native woman of Masset, Pilot Roy Berryman arrived early yesterday afternoon from the Queen Charlotte Islands with his DeHavilland Rapide aircraft of Queen Charlotte Air Lines. Mrs. Brown was suffering from acute appendicitis and ambulance was on hand as she arrived to remove her to the Prince Rupert General Hospital for emergent surgical treatment. The Rapide was flown up to Masset from Allford Bay, where it is now based, especially to make the flight.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual General Meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association will be held in the Civic Centre, Common Lounge Room, on Friday, March 3rd, 1950, at 8.00 p.m.
