HIGH WINS

Downs Co-op 16 to 4
In Softball League

High School fastball squad climbed to third place in the city league standings by defeating Co-op 16 to 4 in the third of the student's games postponed from last month and face the cheerful prospect of joining General Motors and C.N.R.A. in a three-way tie for second place if they beat Gordon and Anderson Saturday night.

Co-op, which held third place until last night, now sits second from the bottom of the league with two wins and three losses, while the Students have a .500 percentage with two wins and two losses.

Unless Gordon and Anderson change their pattern of play, which so far has netted them four losses and no victories, the Students are favorites to win Saturday night's game and tighten up the competition in the upper levels of the league.

Certainly, if they put on the hitting display which featured their game with Co-op last night, they are bound to come out on top in their next game.

The students snatched 11 hits off Co-op pitcher Pallister in seven innings, taking five in the second inning.

In the first two innings they established a clear margin by bringing in one run in the first and seven in the second. Co-op scored one run in the second.

Poor fielding on the part of Co-op resulted in three runs from no hits for the Students in the third, while in the fourth they scored two - for - three. They brought in one run in each of the final three innings.

High School Pitcher Don Scherk and Second Baseman Laurie starred at hitting, each making three hits in five times at bat. Laurie scored four runs and Scherk three.

Co-op scored their second run in the third, off a triple by Pallister, whose batting, incidentally, was the best of his team, two hits off four times at bat. In the fifth, Vuckovich doubled and was brought home by Pallister, while in the sixth Warren was scored off a base on balls.

LOUIS WAS MASTER, FILMS SHOW

WALCOTT NEVER HAD A CHANCE, NOT EVEN FOR POINT DECISION

After seeing the Louis-Walcott fight pictures at the Capitol Theatre, the opinion of this writer (who had been sympathetic with the underdog) is that Joe Louis could have let the fight go the limit and still have won on points. Or, had he really tried, he could have finished off the challenger sooner.

No matter what some observers and writers might have said, notwithstanding the report that judges had been giving the point count to Walcott, the pictures indicate that Louis was master of the situation at all times.

The third round knockdown of Louis was but incidental. It was a stiff right from Walcott but the champion was not in distress then or at any time, even in the tenth round which was the only one in which it could be said Jersey Joe made any real attempt at establishing a necessary challenger's lead.

Louis seemed to have had chances to finish it off in the fifth and seventh rounds when he gave Walcott some rough treatment.

Walcott's hitting was almost entirely in the way of light jobs. He did a good jig-jog backstep dancing job, intent obviously on keeping clear on the chance of delivering a haymaker.

Louis' piledriver attack with rights and lefts to the head and an uppercut to Walcott who was helpless against the ropes in the eleventh, of course, put an end to any arguments. But this writer says that Louis, despite his bruised left eye, was the complete master and the best fighter even without that and would have been entitled to a decision had the fight gone fifteen rounds.

The fight pictures attracted line-up crowds to the Capitol. It is some time since such a long one had been seen at the show. —G.A.H.

Sport Shots

Craig Wood, classy shotmaker from New Jersey and Denny Shute of Philadelphia, tied for the British Open golf title with scores of 292 at historic St. Andrews 15 years ago yesterday Shute whipped his long hitting countryman by five strokes in the 36-hole playoff.

Boston Red Sox paid a reported $2,900 to the Baltimore International League club for rookie pitcher George Herman Ruth 34 years ago today. Five years later the Red Sox sold Ruth to the New York Yankees where he shifted to the outfield and became the greatest home run nitter of all time.

Legion Wins

Veterans Defeat High School 2-1 in Football

In last evening's Gilhuly Cup fixture the Canadian Legion registered its first win of the season by defeating High School 2 to 1 in a closely contested game.

Opening exchanges were slack with Wynn and Hebb showing up to check Christison and Armstrong. A move started by Bob Currie and carried on by Lien and Dickens gave Wilson the ball and he made no mistake in beating Brodie. Armstrong was away but Haugan stopped him. Boulter did well to clear from Glen Smith and Eby. Wilson put Owens in possession but he later shot past. Bob Currie was dangerous. Dave Murray made a good run but Hebb dispossessed him. Eby, Smith and McCrimmon were prominent in a nice move but Wynn cleared. Murray crossed a grand centre that Christison headed into goal but Boulter saved finely. Boulter had to clear twice from Christison and Armstrong. Owens hit the Legion cross-bar and Brodie had horseshoes around when he mis-punched a high ball but it went past. Boulter was guilty of slack clearing but Hebb came to the
