Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When staying at a hotel, doesn't a person have the privilege of rebuking an employee for impudence or some negligence?

A. A far better plan is to make a complaint to the clerk at the desk.

Q. If a young man deliberately breaks a date with a girl, without a plausible excuse, then asks her for another date, what should she do?

A. Decline the invitation, if she has any pride.

of photographs from big game at Babine Lake to sunset at Prince Rupert.

The folder is primarily promotional and largely devoted to pictures. Persons interested in more detailed, factual information may obtain it from the Public Relations Council, the City, or the Junior or Senior Chamber of Commerce, all of which bodies co-ordinate their promotional activities through the Public Relations Council.

The Public Relations Council desires as wide a circulation as possible but points out that some $2500 is invested in the publication and so the public is asked to take only as many copies as can be used to the advantage of the community. Until the bulk of the order has been received, distribution will be spread out thinly. Some eight thousand copies have already been spoken for by 240 Chambers of Commerce, information bureaus and transportation companies in Canada as well as travel and other agencies in the United States, Alaska and Great Britain.

Secretary E. T. Applewhite said today that the Public Relations Council is justly proud of this release and hopes that all Prince Rupert citizens, and particularly those who helped with money or time to make it possible, will feel equally pleased with the result. "The fact that
