He says he believes Canadian people still respect enterprise as the backbone of national life.

"Frankly," he said, "I'm tired of employing people who think more of what they can get than what they can give."

LIVING BONUS

MONTREAL—To help in meeting the increased cost of living, the Canadian Pacific Railway has decided to supplement temporarily the allowance payable to pensioners receiving less than $45 per month. The allowance will bring the minimum amount to $45 and will cease when the pensioner becomes eligible for old age pension.

London Charwoman

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (CP)—Mrs. Lilian Jennings, London charwoman, with the help of her friends' £120 ($480) for a trip to New York to see her daughter, Irene, who married an American sergeant in 1944. "I've been on a boat once before," she said on arrival here, "and that was on a steamer from London Bridge down the river to Ramsgate. When my daughter had a baby girl two years ago, I started saving in earnest. Then some of my neighbors started a fund to help me get across."

PREPARES OWN FUNERAL ORATION ON RECORD—For the first known time in Regina, Sask., and perhaps in Canada, Edwin P. St. John, 81-year-old retired rancher of Arcola, Sask., seated himself before a microphone in a radio station and cut recordings to be played at his funeral. The funeral oration made up two records played in less than 14 minutes. But Mr. St. John, shown above, admits to the possibility that his wife or son or friends, all of them church members, may call in a minister to conduct funeral services. It is to be stipulated in his will that the record be played at his funeral. Reasons for his unusual action are simple: "I don't believe the Bible, but rather the teachings of reason and scientists. I am no hypocrite. I didn't want friends to think that at the last moment I was backing down on beliefs held during a lifetime."

TERRACE RECITAL

Pupils of Miss Janet Young Acquit Themselves Creditably

TERRACE—A pleasant evening was passed at the Terrace Theatre Monday at a musical recital given by the pupils of Miss Janet Young, A.T.C.M. The stage was beautifully decorated with a variety of flowers.

George McAdams, the announcer, used in the words of John McNicoll who said: "When a community pauses from the pursuit of wealth to pursue culture then that community has grown up." Thus Terrace could be considered to be grown up.

The Terrace Orchestra, under leadership of Frank Gavan, gave a performance which was enjoyed by the large audience

Miss Flora Melvin presented Miss Young with a gift from her pupils for which she was thanked.

The beginners who started off the program showed fine grasp of the rudiments of music and played well. Some of the older and accomplished pupils had taken prizes elsewhere and their playing was very much appreciated.

Items contributed by the orchestra were "March of the Wooden Soldiers," "Ida," "Russian Lullaby," "Play, Gypsy, Play," "Martha" and the "Twelfth Street Rag" played by Joe Schultzic on the saxophone. Also playing in the orchestra were: violins, M. Little, H. Somerville, A. Haaland; cello P. van Stolk; guitar S. Hollands; drums F. Gavan; saxophone G. Grant, J. Schultzic, D. Dubeau; trumpet L. Kirkaldy; trombone N. Markwick; pianist Miss E. Head.

Pupils playing the piano were Fred Barr, Lewis Smith, Jim Laird, Marilyn de Kergommeaux, Ida Lee Llewellyn, Robert Melvin, Dorothy McCabe, Colleen Sites, Lorna Melvin, Florence Normandeau, Margaret Adams, Yvonne Normandeau, Bertha Amdam, Rose Marie Tetrault, Flora Melvin, Maureen Kennedy, Betty McCabe, Marie Lindstrom.

Net proceeds of the recital are for instruments for the Terrace Orchestra.

EMANCIPATION

LEGION WINS

then Bob Currie made a grand run and gave Brodie a handful. Murray took a good corner kick that Boulter let slip through his hand and Christison made no mistake with a good header to give the veterans the lead. The Legion forwards were dangerous but finished weakly or found Wynn and Hebb blocking their shots. Owens tested Brodie and Haugan gave him a good shot too. Yelland shot past twice and then Wilson got through to give Brodie a hard shot. Charlie Currie's long drive was cleared by Brodie at the expense of a corner kick and Brodie did well to punch away Owen's well-placed kick. High School had a grand chance to equalize from a penalty but Wilson shot straight at Brodie who cleared. Boulter cleared a fine corner kick taken by Murray and full time came with the Students pressing but unable to get the equalizer.

Teams:

High School—Boulter; Hebb, Wynn; Haugan, Charlie Currie, David Smith; Bob Currie, Henry Dickens, Wilson, Lien, Owens.

Canadian Legion — Brodie; Nelson, Dawes; Yelland, Eby, Greer, McCrimmon, Glen Smith, Christison, Armstrong, Dave Murray.

Referee—Darrow Gomez.

Linesmen—R. Murray, Bond.

Goal scorers— Legion: Armstrong, Christison; High School: Wilson.

BROM THE BENCHES

Brodie was shaky but had no chance with the shot that scored and saved a penalty kick. Nelson was the better back and is improving. Eby was good in defence and attack with Greer and Yelland giving him good support. Christison is a good playmaker and headed a fine goal. Armstrong and Dave Murray were good and always dangerous. Glen Smith went into the halfback line and defended well.

Boulter should have saved both goals for he saved many more difficult shots. But there is nobody to cover up a goalie's slips while one save he brought off when Hebb misdirected the ball was a really smart piece of play. Wynn played his usual clever game and the newcomer Hebb did well too. He gets good length in his goal kicks. Charlie Currie, at centre-half, played a fine game. Haugan and Dave Smith, both newcomers, did very well and with a few more games under their belts will be even more effective. Owens and Bob Currie were always dangerous in the forward line with Bob Currie the star. Wilson got few chances but scored a smart goal. Too bad he missed the penalty . . .but someone remarked that his "old man" had been known to miss a penalty too. With only six of their regular team available the Students did well and they have the right spirit. "Han" Dickens filled in at inside left. "The spirit was willing but the flesh was weak" but he did some smart things.

ALUMINUM SAFER

Metal Apparatus Lessens Fire Hazard

HALIFAX, (CP)—Alumin is being used at the Atlantic fisheries experimental station here in an apparatus used for research in the drying and smoking of fish. The light-weight and durable metal cabinet will eliminate the fire-hazard that existed with the previous wooden tanks. Equipped with complete automatic control, the apparatus is used to find how long it takes to prepare different samples of fish. It is sometimes necessary to have the machine in operation continuously throughout a four-day period.

FRANCOIS LAKE

The Women's Christian Society met at Mrs. Reg. Partington's home on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Phil Kelly and Jennifer Kelly and Mrs. Les Taft and Anne Louise came across from Southbank for the meeting. After the singing of hymns and an interesting and instructive lesson Mrs. Kelly closed the meeting with a prayer. Then Sylvia Partington carried in a dainty basket filled with gifts for Baby Purity Millar which her mother, Mrs. Charles Millar, opened. Mrs. Partington served refreshments.

F. S. Kennedy left on Thursday morning's train for Vancouver to spend holidays. He taught at the Francois Lake school during the past year.

Mrs. June Curtis has returned from Vancouver where she took a hairdressing course.

Mrs. James Vanzanten and her brother, Edward Sholander, are visiting relatives in Lodi, California, and expect to be away a month.

Francois Lake is proud of its basketball team which got as far as the Final in Prince George. Unfortunately a rainstorm prevented their playing the final game there.

Miss Sargent and Miss Quinsey of the Prince George Library paid a short visit to the Landing in connection with the Library there.
