Food Parcels Still Welcome

People of Britain Are Weary of Restrictions

Food packages are still welcome in Britain, says D. R. Barclay who returned to the city last week, accompanied by Mrs. Barclay, from a two months' trip to the Old Land. Particularly welcome are ham, bacon, white flour and cake mixes which do not require eggs.

With foods still tightly rationed and all goods in short supply with prices high as the country still concentrates on the effort to export to build up dollar reserves, middle class Britons, says Mr. Barclay, are getting enough but, particularly in food, there is lack of variety.

For instance, white flour is never seen, only the whole wheat variety being available.

The bacon an ordinary Canadian would use in one meal has to do the whole family under the ration in Britain.

In clothing, which is off ration now, prices are high. For instance an ordinary dress shirt sells for sixty shillings (about $9 in Canadian funds) on the present rate of exchange. An ordinary tweed overcoat costs about $40.

Mr. Bartlett found the middle class, weary of continued restrictions under the Labor government, hoping for a change at the recent election but expecting the Labor party to be returned. He thought that the closeness of the Labor majority would be surprising to the people with whom he had come in contact who felt, regardless of their own hopes, that the Atlee government would have had a larger margin.

Mr. Bartlett visited his native city of Glasgow as well as Edinburgh and County Down in Northern Ireland where relatives reside. It was Mrs. Barclay's first visit to the Old Country and was a highly interesting experience for her. In Edinburgh they enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilson, formerly of this city.

NORTHWEST ERECTING BILL SCUBY BUILDING

An inadvertent error in the Daily News yesterday concerning the announcement of the new building on Third Avenue for Bill Scuby's Furs named the "Northern" Construction Co. as the contractors. This should have read "Northwest" Construction Co.

TOO GOOD TO BELIEVE—On the edge of a group of children near at UNICEF Fund camp stood a solitary little boy. Incredibly tattered, the boy mud oozing round his bare feet, he yet preserved a sort of hopeless dignity which touched the UNICEF man. He consulted his list, "Pavlo Skirios, orphan," it said, "One Blanket." The agent chose a particularly nice one, crossed the yard, and stuffed the blanket into the wondering boy's arms. The boy's eyes grew wide. The blanket man was teasing him surely! In a moment, when the joke was over, he would snatch it back again. No? Then this heavenly, soft, beautiful blanket was all his? A look of rapture lighted his face. Hugging the precious bundle to him, he buried his thin cheek in its warmth. It was too much for the UNICEF agent. To think that one blanket—the gift of one anonymous citizen of France, Canada, the U.S.A. or Australia—could bring such bliss!

"He's well trained, isn't he?"

What City Council Did

... tabled a request from the Prince Rupert Shrine Band for grant of $100. The matter will be considered when annual estimates are brought down.

... granted the Prince Rupert Public School Board a $16,000 advance against their 1950 estimates.

... adopted a report of the Utilities committee which recommended purchase of a first aid kit for city ambulance.

... passed the report of the health social assistance, police, licensing committee. The committee stated that the caretaker position in the City Rest Room had been filled by Peter Montchal.

... Adopted recommendation of the Pioneer's Home Committee for payments of accounts for January. The committee reported the Superintendent's report for that month was received and considered.

Discussion Over Bid For License

Considerable discussion arose at a city council meeting last night during recommendations of the issuance of trade licences to four city firms by the health, social assistance, police and licensing committee. Three firms, D. J. Brown, building contractors; B. F. Lovin, Agency; and E. F. Tubb, taxi operator were granted licenses. But in view of certain statements by Alderman George Casey and H. F. Glassey, council decided to withhold action on the application of Norwest Builders Ltd., building contractors, for further investigation. The firm is incorporated and endorsed by two city banks.

Yummy! Chelsea Bun Loaf

A treat you can make easily with new fast DRY Yeast

Now you have Fleischmann's Fast Dry Yeast, forget about the oldtime hazards of yeast baking! Always at hand—always full-strength and fast rising! Keep a month's supply in your cupboard! Make this delicious Chelsea Bun Loaf—cut in slices for buttering, or separate the buns.

CHELSEA BUN LOAF

Make 3 pans of buns from this one recipe—dough will keep in refrigerator for a week.

Scald $\frac{3}{4}$ c. milk, $\frac{1}{4}$ c. granulated sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt and $\frac{1}{4}$ c. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl $\frac{1}{2}$ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 mins. THEN stir well. Add cooled milk mixture and stir in well-beaten eggs. Stir in 2 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat until smooth. Work in $\frac{1}{2}$ c. once-sifted bread flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Cut off $\frac{1}{8}$ of dough, knead into a smooth ball, place in greased bowl, grease top of dough, cover and store in refrigerator until wanted. Shape remaining $\frac{1}{2}$ of dough into a smooth ball, place in greased bowl and grease top. Cover and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Cream 1 lb. butter or margarine and blend in $\frac{1}{2}$ c. brown sugar (lightly pressed down), $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. ground cinnamon and 3 lbs. corn syrup; spread about $\frac{1}{2}$ of this mixture in bottom of a greased loaf pan ($12\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$) and sprinkle with pecan halves. Punch down risen dough and roll out into an 8" square; loosen dough. Spread with remaining sugar mixture and sprinkle with $\frac{1}{2}$ c. raisins. Loosely roll up like a jelly roll. Cut roll into 6 slices. Place in prepared pan. Grease tops. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, 25-30 mins. Let stand in pan for 5 mins. before turning out.

Alderman Frizzell said that he had been approached and asked that council remove the bus line from the location.

"They feel that something definite should be done," Ald. Frizzell said. "They say they have taken this for over a year and demand more action."

Alderman Black commented the bus line is using city streets for a parking area. They should be notified, he suggested, that proper parking lots should be acquired.

The zoning committee, it was decided, should approach the company.

"This has got to stop," cry the First Avenue dwellers.
