Political Action

TEMOCRACY only attains its goal when its citi-Zens think more of their duty than their rights. A primary duty of each and all of us is to form a judgment from the experience available about everything that concerns the well-being of the state and our fellowman. Thereby lies good citizenship.

Like some church-goers who hang up their religion with their Sunday clothes-to be used only on the Sabbath-too many Canadians unthinkingly leave their citizenship at the polls. It is important, of course, that one should present himself at the polling booth. But he should demonstrate interest in public affairs at all times and should participate actively in them.

The indiscriminate security that neither asks for effort nor encourages it will depress the whole foundation of society.

RANGE OF QUALITY

THE SKEENA HIGHWAY has now been called everything one can think of. The latest report was "Perfect." 'A few days ago it was "Impassible." The range is very great indeed. The Prince Rupert Automobile Association (surely an authoritative source) in its most recent reference to the road, suitably crowned it. And now, in winter at least, excellence reaches its serene zenith.

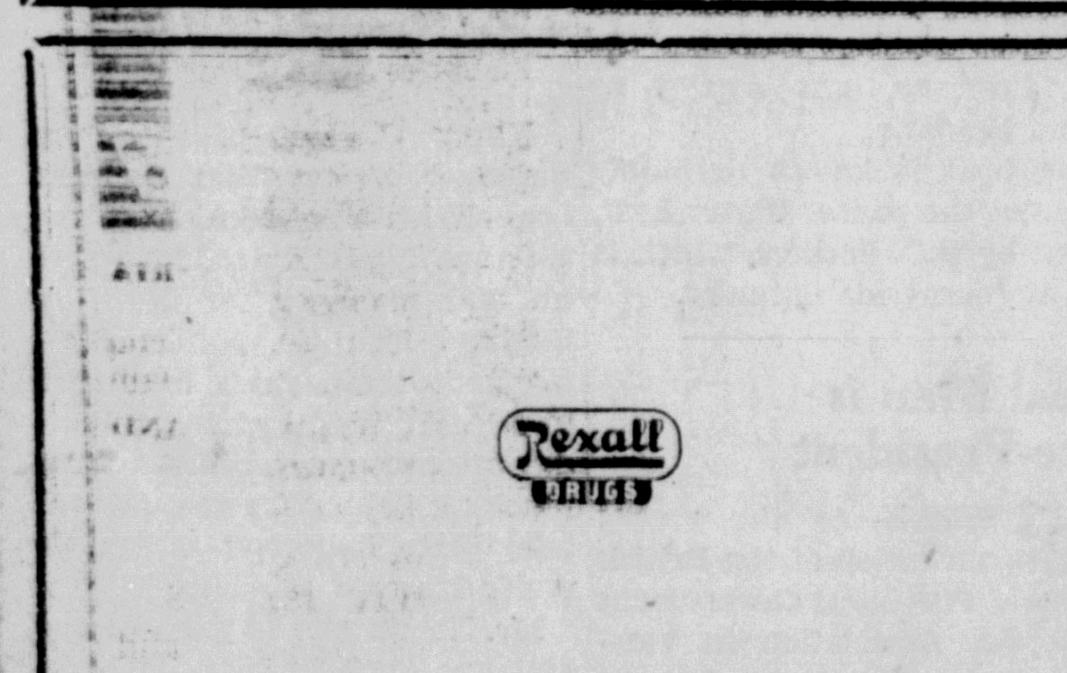

SOME GOOD BOYS

THREE BOYS, standing with the Governor-General, had their photos taken recently in Ottawa. They were decorated for bravery in saving life or trying to. Our own Scout Roy Clifford, from Terrace, was one. The others live in Quebec and Ontario. In all, they represent a large proportion of the whole of the Dominion. How does all this stack up against the peevish plaints and over-emphasis given "juvenile deling ency?" There are still quite a few pretty fair young fellows in Canada. Quite a
