STEWART MOOSE WOMEN BAZAAR

One of Most Successful Affairs of Kind Ever Held There

STEWART—On Saturday the Women of the Moose held one of the best attended and most colorful bazaars which ever took place in the Portland Canal district. Over $200 was taken in.

Under the able convenship of Mrs. McKay, chairman of the homemaking committee, everything had an atmosphere of a southern metropolis even although there was two feet of snow on the ground.

The needlework booth was in charge of Mrs. Bouzek and Mrs. Thompson.

The home cooking was convened by Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Kustas and Mrs. J. McLeod.

The candy booth, artistically decorated, kept Mrs. Rosaire of Hyder working overtime.

The tea room, crowded to capacity, was a credit to Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Blasher, Mrs. Tooth, Mrs. Manolovich and Mrs. J. Hawkinson.

Moosehaven Chairman Mrs. A. Geddes was awarded the prize for having the best decorated booth.

A pillow of gold, made and donated by E. Stewart, was won by Mrs. G. J. S. Anderson and the Moose Christmas hamper which numerically contained some 50 articles was won by Andy Anderson.

The tea room and the booths were all well patronized and the ladies in charge say they could have sold twice as much goods.

Timely Topics from Terrace

Mrs. C. R. De Kergommeaux, Terrace Reporter

One of the most successful teas and sales was held in the Orange Hall last Saturday afternoon by members of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary when the proceeds amounted to $100 clear profit. The afternoon was very cold and windy but there was a fairly good attendance nevertheless. A good array of home cooking and candy was soon sold and the aprons on the needlework stall were quickly snapped up. President Mrs. West greeted the patrons. Pourers were Mrs. Sparkes and Mrs. Tumilson. Serviteurs were Mrs. Hamlin, Peggy Laird and Mrs. Masted. In the kitchen were Mrs. R. Thomson, Mrs. Sande, Mrs. Calder, Mrs. McNabb, Home cooking stall, Mrs. H. King, Mrs. Giggey. Apron stall, Mrs. C. de Kergommeaux, Mrs. H. Holden.

Irene Pratt has returned to Terrace from Vancouver where she has spent the past three months.

Curley Casey returned last week from Vancouver where he was a patient in the Shaughnessy hospital.

E. Buckholz has returned from Alice Arm where he has spent the past six months.

The village commissioners are making plans to have a large Christmas Tree with colored lights placed on the southeast

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When it is raining hard and a girl's escort stops his car at the curb, near a doorway, should she allow him to get out on his side, go around and open the door for her?

A. No. The considerate girl will get out and run for the door, telling him to slide over and do the same.

Q. Should parents take along their small child when they are invited to spend an informal evening with friends?

A. Never, unless the invitation specifically includes the child.
