HERE'S PROOF—Edward Riley, Lockport, N. Y. restaurant owner, proudly displays the eight-pound-one-ounce small mouth black bass which set a record for Ontario in the books of the fish and wildlife division of the Department of Lands and Forests. Using a fly rod baited with crab meat, Mr. Riley was fishing in Algonquin Park on Sept. 1 when this monster struck. It won him $200 in prizes from the Toronto Star in its 1949 fishing contest—$100 in the bass division and $100 for the finest fish in the contest. (CP Photo)
