M.P.'s WIFE VIEWS OTTAWA—

Mrs. Applewhaite Is Impressed By Beauty of Canada's Capital City
by Jay Kullander

"There is so much in Ottawa that is beautiful and interesting," said Mrs. Applewhaite in speaking of her sojourn in the capital city, "that I feel I haven't half touched Ottawa but I hope to see much more on my next visit."

The wife of the member for Skeena was enthusiastic about the beauty of the city and of the Parliament Buildings. "Every time I entered the Buildings I felt proud that I am a Canadian," she said. "Ottawa is different from any other city I have seen," she continued. "It has an atmosphere all its own. With all the members of parliament and the many civil servants it is a busy city but it does not have the bustle of an industrial city. There is an old world atmosphere around the centre of Ottawa—the houses are very old and of former style architecture."

"Every street is lined with maple trees and from the Peace Tower Ottawa presents a scene of green with spires of buildings showing through, though of course in the fall the green yellows. The trees provide homes for many black squirrels and we can often see these cunning little creatures scampering about."

Mrs. Applewhaite attended

many of the sessions of Parliament, sometimes two a day. "I found the sessions intensely interesting and educational," she said. "I was particularly struck with the spirit of co-operation that existed. The members of the government and of the opposition too seemed to be working together for the good of the country. The members worked long, hard hours. My husband left for the buildings at 8:30 a. m. and often worked through until midnight."

Minister St. Laurent and Madame St. Laurent, Mrs. Applewhaite said: "Canada has reason to be proud of such wonderful leaders, they are so able and sincere. Madame St. Laurent is very charming and a true wife and mother."

"The members did not have to leave the buildings for meals as there is a very beautiful dining-room in the Buildings and in it one will see many promient men. Indeed it is the 'cross-roads of Canada.

"Also in the Buildings there are rooms where the wives of members can entertain. Many functions are held in the Parliament Buildings. At the beginning of the session Mrs. Mayhew, wife of the minister of fisheries, gave a tea for the wives of new members. Mrs. Mayhew was very kind in giving advice and helping newcomers.

We found time to do a little sight-seeing. There are many beautiful drives—through residential areas, along the Rideau Canal, and through the Gatineau Hills. Of course, Ontario is very thickly populated and there are many cities within easy access of Ottawa. We had a particularly enjoyable visit to Hamilton. The trip was arranged by Mr. Ross, one of the members from Hamilton. Many of the mail and passenger service members and wives from districts which were too far away Hague.

for them to get home for weekends were invited. We were quite royally entertained. We were met by the mayor of the city of Hamilton and by officials of the Studebaker Motor Company. We were driven through the city in a fleet of Studebaker cars and even had a motorcycle escort. The whole tour which included a trip to Niagara Falls and a visit to the Sovereign Potteries was so enjoyable and so well-planned that we were all very favorably impressed with Hamilton.

"Indeed," concluded Mrs. Applewhaite, "I very much enjoyed the fall session in Ottawa and I am looking forward to seeing Ottawa in the Spring."

OLD MAIL SERVICE

As early as 1839, the Netherlands had a regular twice-daily mail from Hamilton. Many of the mail and passenger service members and wives from districts which were too far away Hague.

ROBIN HOOD POPOVERS

- 1 cup sifted Robin Hood Flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 teaspoons melted shortening
- 1 cup milk
- 2 eggs

What wonderful puffed-up popovers you make the Robin Hood way—crisp and golden outside, light as thisledown!

- Preheat oven to 475°F. (Very hot oven.) Place approximately 9 thick muffin pans or custard cups in oven to heat while making batter.
- Measure sifted flour into sifter, add salt. Sift together into mixing bowl. Add milk gradually, beating until smooth.
- Beat eggs until thick and light. Add to flour and milk mixture, then add melted shortening. Beat for 2 minutes with rotary beater. Batter should be thickness of heavy cream.
- Remove pans from oven and grease thoroughly (butter gives best flavor.) Pour batter into pans, filling half-full.
- Bake in a very hot oven 475°F. for 20 minutes, then reduce heat to 350°F. (moderate oven) and bake 20 minutes longer.

Serve warm. Yield—approx. 9 popovers.
