MANY MOURN AT FUNERAL

Funeral Chapel Unable to Accommodate All Who Gathered for Mrs. Alexander's Final Rites

So large was the number of friends and sympathisers who desired to join in the funeral rites yesterday afternoon for the late Mrs. Elvina Emily Alexander, whose death occurred last week after a lengthy illness, that the Grenville Court Chapel of B.C. Undertakers could not accommodate them all and many were unable to gain admission. A simple but impressive prayer service was conducted by Rev. Basil S. Prockter, rector of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral. Mrs. J. C. Gilker presided at the organ to accompany the one hymn which was "Abide With Me."

Brain returned yesterday afternoon from where she had been for a fashion by the Lions

Mooseheart Day To Be Observed

Prince Rupert Moose Lodge is planning for a fitting celebration on October 26 of Mooseheart Day when the anniversary of the founding of the now great home for Lodge members and their dependents will be observed. The memory of the late James Davis, founder of Mooseheart, will also be honored at a joint session of the men's and ladies' lodges. Arrangements for Mooseheart Day occupied most of the attention at the last regular meeting of the Lodge with Governor C. H. Collins in the chair.

Ed. Hodkja, formerly of Prince Rupert, was a passenger by Saturday's train from New Hazelton to Kitwanga where he has been located for some time. It has been years since he visited Prince Rupert, old friends.

Ben Hughes
Ben Hughes, Editor of the Courtenay-Comox Argus.

"I'm zealously, fanatically in favor of the Democratic System"

"I can say with certainty for the Courtenay-Comox Argus that now and during the past quarter of a century no government or any body or agency outside the business has dictated the policy of the paper, and I believe that is true of the great majority of Canadian newspapers," says Ben Hughes, Editor of the Courtenay-Comox Argus.

"The only people who can dictate to Canadian publishers are their subscribers and, without circulation you cannot get advertising. Therein lies the safeguard of a free press under the private enterprise system. A free press is your safeguard against inefficiency in high places everywhere; against anybody who'd impose on your rights.

"But nobody, and especially no government, likes to be criticized. And a Communist or state monopoly government could make it very tough for a newspaper which attacked it.

"How? Well, with the government controlling everything, they could soon put on the pressure through newspaper rationing, manpower direction, or straight control.

"That's why I'm against Communism or any state monopoly system. As we saw in Hitler-land of yesterday and Stalin-land of today, the first thing the Communists do is to get hold of the newspapers; either the editor follows the party line or he goes to the concentration camp. The greater concentration of power there is in the hands of the government, the greater danger there is to a free press.

"I'm a practical newspaper man, and I've done a lot of criticizing of the government in my time. I'm zealously, fanatically in favor of the democratic system. It's the only system . . . that'll give us a free press . . . the only system where we can be sure of seeing that too much power does not get into the hands of the government."
