PROBLEM OF EIRE

LONDON-Observers today wondered whether an unheralded week-end meeting of United Kingdom, Dominions and Eire spokesmen had solved the Commonwealth's problem as to whether a sovereign republic is not bound by the British crown to continue as a member of the British Commonwealth. The question arises out of the intention of Eire to repeal the External Relations Act, one of the last ties linking Eire to Britain.

DEDICATED

Red Letter Day For Regular Baptists-

Sunday was a "red letter" day for the enthusiastic local mission of the Regular Baptist Church. It marked the formal dedication of the neat new church building on Sixth Avenue, the baptism in the full rite of five newly professed members and spirited morning, afternoon and evening services. Rev. Lorimer G. Baker, vigorous missionary and pastor from Vancouver, was here to take a Sunday School rally with eightytwo children in attendance.
