TERRACE SCOUTS-GUIDES DISPLAY

Week is Suitably Observed In Interior Town

TERRACE — Relatives and friends were interested spectators at a display arranged by the leaders of the Boy Scouts, Cubs, Girl Guides and Brownies which was held in the Odd-fellows' hall in Friday evening. The Brownies started the program and they were followed by the newly-formed Guides who formed their horseshoe and sang "Taps."

Mrs. Head, president of the

FRANCOIS LAKE

Fred Apps cut his foot with an axe when working in the woods and was taken to Burns Lake Hospital, where the wound was cared for. He will probably be off work for a week.

Stephen Holmes, Registrar for Omineca District, has been staying at the Beach House for a few days while registering for the Provincial voters' list.

District Agriculturist Johnson of Vanderhoof was here for a short business visit.

Captain Stretch was taken to the hospital on Sunday afternoon after cutting his foot with an axe while splitting firewood. The wound was closed with a few stitches and he was able to come home again.

Things were very quiet at the Landing on Sunday with all the young folk attending the ski meet in Burns Lake.

Girl Guide Association, addressed the gathering on behalf of the Brownies and Mrs. C. J. Norrington spoke on behalf of the Girl Guides who were in charge of Mrs. C. McIlroy and Miss Ina Smith.

Rev. R. Hills and J. Haaland guided the Cubs through their display. Brock Norberg, Scoutmaster, gave a talk on the scout movement and the young scouts put on a display.

Then the troop was passed over to Dick Dubeau and Wally Chesher who will be their future leaders.

Rev. Hills was in charge of the games and community singing and Constable Brue played the piano for the singing.

With Mrs. Jack McLeod and Mrs. H. Philip co-vening, refreshments were served.

A church parade at the Anglican Church on Sunday night concluded Scout and Guide Week in Terrace. The church was filled with the Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies and their leaders. Lessons were read by Brock Norberg and Wally Chesher. Rev. R. Hills text for his address was "Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock." There was a full choir and with William Laird at the organ, the hymns sung were "God Send us Men," "Onward Christian Soldiers," "Day is Dying."

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, is due in port at midnight tonight from the south and will sail soon thereafter on her return south.

VANDERHOOF

Completion and improvement of highways between Vanderhoof and Prince George and Vanderhoof and Fort St. James are being urged vigorously by the Vanderhoof and District Board of Trade under its new president, H. V. Taylor.

Boxing and wrestling were featured on the program when a very successful smoker was held last Saturday night by the local Canadian Legion. There was music by an orchestra led by William Bowman. The committee in charge consisted of R. Campbell, K. Campbell and A. Almand.

TERRACE CREDIT UNION ANNUAL

Past Year Was Successful One—J. Rolison Elected President

TERRACE — The annual meeting of the Terrace Credit Union was held last Thursday evening in the new hall. There was a very good attendance with Joseph Rolison in the chair.

A statement of the year's income, dividends and rebates was given by the treasurer, Mrs. S. Campbell.

Mr. Rolison, in his annual report gave a resume of the year's work showing what a progressive year 1947 had been for the Credit Union in Terrace. Their new building, a former army building, had been purchased, moved to the Union's lot on Greig Avenue and converted into a hall with kitchen convenience and is now available to other community organizations for meetings. Reports were also submitted

FRANCOIS LAKE FERRY TIES UP

FRANCOIS LAKE—The ferry made the last trip last Friday afternoon as the ice was gathering fast with the sub-zero temperature. At present the ice is not strong enough to allow walking across so people are all travelling round the head of the lake to get to Burns Lake.

The committee in charge consisted of R. Campbell, K. Campbell and A. Almand.
