Bulletins

KING STILL WORKING

LONDON-The King today carried out normal routine of duty despite his circulatory ailment. In future he may use a wheel chair to rest his leg. His general health is good.

BLAMES BRITISH, AMERICANS

PARIS—A Soviet bloc delegate said today that British and American oil and military interests had wrecked the United Nations partition plan for Palestine. He said that the General Assembly's No. 1 political committee should order troops from the bordering states of Egypt, TransJordan, Syria, Lebanon and Iraq out of Palestine.

VESSEL FEARED SUNK

HALIFAX—Three Royal Conadian Air Force search planes continued search today for the British freighter Hopestar, missing with 37 men on board about 400 miles southeast of Halifax. United States Coastguard planes combed the area yesterday for the 5267-ton vessel which was last heard from November 13 when she reported "heavy weather damage." It is feared that the vessel sank with all on board.

TRYING TO BREAK CRISIS

PARIS—Six "neutral" members of the United Nations security courcil today again took up their task of trying to break through the east-west deadlock in Berlin. They will sift through British, French, United States and Russian answers in an effort to find a clue as a means of halting the cold

CONVICT STABBING

MONTREAL—A twenty-year convict was stabbed to death by a lifer in St. Vincent's Penitentiary, near here, today.

CANADA-NEWFIE TERMS

OTTAWA—After lengthy negotiations, Newfoundland and Canada have agreed on financial terms considerably different from tentative agreements suggested a year ago when entry of the Island into Confederation was discussed. An official source said the financial burden on Canada had not been increased. The original estimate of a $15,000,000 a year drain on Canada's treasury has now been reduced to $7,000,000.

INTERNATIONAL WHEAT PACT

WASHINGTON—The international wheat agreement, which was scuttled last year by the United States, may be revived almost at once. An informed source said the United States government was about to make a long-awaited announcement, calling the 11-country wheat preparatory committee into session.

LOUIS VS. GODOY

PHILADELPHIA—Promoter Herman Taylor announced Tuesday that he had signed the world's heavyweight champion, Joe Louis, for a six-round bout with Arturo Godoy of Chile at Convention Hall December 14. He said that the fighters will wear gloves of twelve ounces or less.

HALIFAX STRIKE

HALIFAX—Two thousand longshoremen tonight will decide whether they will resume handling ocean-going vessels diverted here by the strike | There is no record of his dein United States ports. The Halifax Longshore- parture from Ocean Falls. men's Association yesterday reached decision not to work diverted vessels until tonight's meeting. The decision was a return to the stand taken November 17 not to work, which decision was rescinded two days later after the Halifax union considered its legal position.
