XMAS BRIDGE

Decorations, Special Prizes and Refreshments Featured

The club lounge of the Civic Centre was an attractive and jolly scene when the Bridge Club, which has been having instruction and playing sessions regularly during the past fall, had a special pre-Christmas party. There were special decorations for the occasion and refreshments were served. Garnet Hull and Mrs. G. E. Moore were in charge.

Nine tables were in play and there were regular and special prizes which were won as follows: ladies' first, Mrs. Agnes Murray; second, Mrs., L. Christofferson; third, Mrs. Davidson; special prize for slam bid, Mrs. George Hill; men's first, L. Christofferson; second, W. R. Whidden; consolation, Mrs. F. St. Amour; special, A. W. Allaire.
