With the creation of the department of veterans affairs in October 1944 he undertook one of the major jobs in the years directly ahead.

In one riscal year (1946-47), more than $750,000,000 was paid out to veterans through his department, a sum considerably in excess of a normal peacetime budget His staff swelled to more than 20,000 as it accepted the full brunt of rehabilitating the hundreds of thousands who came pouring out of uniform. Ian Mackenzie avowed that their outlook would be primarily and always humanitarian. His creed was "In any doubtful case, always lean over backwards for the veteran."

Three Thousand Dollars is Objective of Annual Red Shield Campaign

Confident of a cordial greeting and a generous donation as they go from door to door, canvassers for the annual Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal have started out on a drive to raise $3,000 in Prince Rupert. Hope is that it will be possible to conclude the effort with a minimum of delay and, in that regard, it is felt that the public understanding of the Army and its good work will expedite the
