BIRMINGHAM HAS OLD TIME 'FLU

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. — The worst influenza outbreak in 25 years sees no fewer than 60,000 confined to bed in this city. For the first time isolation wards have been opened for flu cases. One in every ten of Birmingham's bus and postal employees are listed as ill. People who did not even have a sore throat have been collapsing in the streets.

SEEK OIL IN MANITOBA
MELITA, Man., — The first deep test will be made for oil and gas this summer near Lyleton in southwestern Manitoba. The area forms the eastern corner of a vast triangle in which subterranean rock formations are favorable for the discovery of oil.

The setter, a type of bird dog, received its name in England, being trained to crouch, or set, not to stand on sighting game.

STEWART

The Women of the Moose celebrated the anniversary of their organization with a whist drive and dance on Saturday in the Moose Home. Mrs. R. Barwise won the ladies' first prize and Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick took the consolation prize. Sam Kirkpatrick was the sigh man, with William Boedecker taking the consolation. The drawing for two beautiful book-ends was won by Mrs. H. Rozare of Hyger, Alaska. The supper was, as usual, excellent. Arrangements were in the hands of the sick care committee.

It was thought here that spring had at last arrived with the advent of a few robins but the weather man stepped in last week and brought another six inches of snow, just to remind that winter is not over, at least here.

Angelo Bugnello arrived from the south last week and was accompanied by Evan Harris, former superintendent of the Morris Summit mine, the latter to make an examination of the Dunwell holdings for southern interests.
