News Ad Solves Man's Problem

The transportation problem was solved by at least one commercial traveller this week.
James Boyle of the Westminster Paper Company arrived earlier in the week after making a business trip around from the coast by automobile.
When he arrived here, he found he would not be able to ship his car down. A classified advertisement in the Daily News solved his problem. He sold the car the following day and proceeded to Vancouver by CPA Friday.

Air Service Is Being Kept Up

Contrary to reports (not published in the Daily News) the employees of Canadian Pacific Air Lines are not on strike with the striking unions of the Canadian railways, officials state.

All flights in British Columbia and Alberta as well as the rest of Canada are operating on schedule although there has been a notable increase in the number of bookings on many of the services.

Officials state that, while there is still space available on most flights, if the strike is at all prolonged, arrangements have been made to put extra flights on the service if and when traffic warrants.

Bold Bears Common Now

Black bear, already reported making themselves at home in more outlying residential sections of the city, are becoming even bolder.

Yesterday morning one big fellow visited the back yard of Dr.
L. M. Greene on Borden Street.
Intercepted, he merely looked up, took a few more berries and ambled off along the hillside.

Bears are becoming so commonplace now that citizens do not even bother reporting their presence to the authorities.
