PRINCE RUPERT FOLK ARE KIND

Generous Response to Appeal on Behalf of Burned Out Bulkley Valley Family

Mrs. Anna Johnson of Agnew Place virtually exuded appreciation and enthusiasm yesterday afternoon when she called the Daily News office to express her thanks for the appeal made in Wednesday's paper on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Byman and family of six who lost their home and all its effects at Perow in the Bulkley Valley. "I never realized there were so many kind, sympathetic and generous people in Prince Rupert," said Mrs. Johnson as she recounted the gifts of clothing, furniture and other articles which had been made. "And I have you people at the Daily News to thank for it all," she added.

The donated articles are being sent to Perow where they will, no doubt, be fully appreciated by the Bymans who lost everything.
