IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN!

WALTON - ON - THE-HILL, Surrey, Eng. "I am not sure there is anybody who is 100 per cent honest in this country now," said the City of London Police Commissioner, Sir Hugh Turnbull, at the opening of the Railway Police Training School.

FOLKESTONE, Eng. De- tonation of a magnetic mine washed ashore set off an explosion that shook the East Kent coast from Folkestone to Dungeness but there was no damage.

Teachers

MRS. ANDREWS

Mrs. Andrews, one of the Grade Seven teachers, came from Wells, where she has spent the last two years. She is a graduate of the Calgary Normal School.

Mrs. Andrews says she likes Prince Rupert very much, especially this winter season. Her favorite pastimes are knitting, reading and playing bridge—no, she's never had a perfect hand. In food her weakness is chocolate cake, and the food she dislikes most is spinach.

Mrs. Andrews is quite a book-worm so she can't tell her favorite author.

MR. WRIGHT

The last but not the least of our new teachers for the 1948-49 team is Mr. Wright, the school's Senior English teacher.

Mr. Wright hails from Ontario. He is a graduate of University of British Columbia. During the war while he was in the Royal Canadian Air Force, he was an instructor in Ontario.

Mr. Wright is a family man—he has two children, one a Grade Seven student of this school and the other in Grade Four attending Borden Street School. He likes Prince Rupert—not rain, though. His favorite recreations are baseball, golf, bowling and bridge. (He and Mrs. Andrews should get together on that).

When asked about the New Year he says the women look very smart but as far as being stable—nothing doing.

I.O.D.E. Municipal Chapter Putting Up $100 Scholarship

Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, has established an annual scholarship of $100 for a student at Booth Memorial High School who is going on to further study. The scholarship will be given to that student who has the best scholarship record and shows during his school course the highest qualities of citizenship.

Looking Backward

September 13—Won't someone take pity on us? How can we study with an airplane buzzing above our school. Bill and Fred Kergin, Gordon Kerr, Rosario Soriano and Russell Bulger were among those from the High School who went up in the plane. (A Junkers all-metal monoplane piloted by G. A. Thompson).

September 28—The students assembled in the Junior Room to elect officers for the Students Council, Literary Society and Magazine Staff. Results were:

President of Students' Council, Lee Gordon.

Vice-President, Bill Kergin. Secretary, Fred Kergin. Chairman of Literary Society, Pete Tremayne.

Chairman Boys' Athletic Association, Bill Cavalier.

President of Girls' Athletic Association, Margaret Palmer. Secretary Gordon Kerr.

October 20—A second meeting of the magazine staff was held in the Commercial Room. The name "Aurora" was proposed by Principal Brady and seconded by Miss D. C. Ryan and carried unanimously.

Editor—Irene Hansen.
Reporters—Margo Brown, Joan Moller, Donna Kerrigan, Mary McAfee, Esther Harrison, Kathleen Smith, Deshka Peneff.

TOP TEN TUNES OF THE DAY

- Buttons and Bows.
- On a Slow Boat to China.
- My Darling, My Darling.
- A Little Bird Told Me.
- All I Want For Xmas.
- You Were Only Fooling.
- Until.
- Far Away Places.
- Lavender Blue.
- Cuanto Le Gusta.

Kay Starr has made a recording that could hold the honored spot in any collection. It is "You Were Only Fooling," current hit parade favorite, backed by "A Faded Summer Love." This latter song is really a honey and should reach a great height of popularity. Miss Starr gives this record the justice it deserves. Dave Cavanaugh's Music provides a tricky and delightful accompaniment for both sides.

"Columbus Stockade Blues" exemplifies very clearly the trend which some popular music is following—the western style. The title of this tune is somewhat misleading as it is nothing like the "St. Louis Blues" and hasn't even a mournful note in it. Vaughn Monroe, assisted by the Sons of the Pioneers, does the vocal honors. One reason why the disc is good is that Vaughn doesn't try to sing too much. His voice gets quite boring at times. A violin in the background proves very effective in bringing out the hill-billy style of the song. There is one criticism and that is the jazz interlude that comes half way in the record seems very much out of place. The other side of this record, "My Own True Love" is hardly worth mentioning. Vaughn Monroe can't seem to decide whether the piece is to be vocal or instrumental and these two forces seem to be trying to outdo each other. It's all very confusing.

In the next few weeks some western and classical pieces

Personalities

Mona Lykegaare

Mona is Vice-President of the School Council. She was born on May 13, 1932 at Atlin, where she lived for about four years. She has lived in several different places in British Columbia and came here from Vancouver. Mona attended Borden Street School and then came to Bo-Me-Hi in Grade Seven. She takes an active interest in sports and plays forward on the girls' High School basketball team. Her favorite sports are basketball, skiing and ping-pong. Her favorite hobbies are reading and sports. She intends to be a secretary or stenographer.

AMPLIFIERS IN PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA (C)—An amplifying system will be installed in the House of Commons as soon as satisfactory equipment can be found. Speaker Gaspard Fataeux said yesterday. He said that he was "most anxious" to find equipment that would overcome poor acoustics of the House of Commons without disfiguring the Chamber.
