

"Velvet" WITH Carnation

SOLID LITTLE FELLOW! Carnation babies are really "on velvet" ... with Carnation.

Carnation Milk is so good for them ... first, because it is as nourishing as milk can be; second, because it is heat-refined and homogenized, making it easy to digest; third, because the vitamin D has been increased to 400 units per pint; and fourth, because it is sterilized for absolute safety.

No wonder that so many babies today are getting Carnation Milk formulas. It's the milk every doctor knows.

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

Twenty-Five Years
Highest halibut prices ever paid up to that time went to the American schooner E. Neilson which sold 6,500 pounds to Booth Fisheries for 23.1c and 12c. Previous high price was 23c during the war.

Under plans being developed by the French government, frozen halibut was to be shipped direct from Prince Rupert to France. The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. was involved in the deal.

HOME-MADE ROLLS MAKE IMPRESSION—EVEN AMATEURS CAN MAKE THEM

Hot rolls always make an impression whether it is the family or important guests who are being served. The homemaker who can boast that she has made them herself may proudly accept the compliments.

Even the inexperienced cook may astonish her family with home-made rolls if she follows up-to-date methods recommended by the home economists. This basic recipe may be varied in many ways making plain or fancy rolls to suit the occasion.

BASIC SWEET ROLL DOUGH

2 cakes compressed yeast OR 2 envelopes (2 tablespoons) fast rising dry yeast
1/4 cup lukewarm water
1 cup milk
1/4 cup butter or shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, beaten
5 cups sifted all-purpose flour (approximately)

Soak yeast in lukewarm water. Scald milk, add butter, sugar and salt and cool to lukewarm. Add enough of the flour to make a thick batter (about 2 1/2 cups), then add yeast and beaten eggs and beat well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on a lightly-floured board and knead until satiny. Place in a greased bowl, cover and let rise until double in bulk, about 2 hours. Then punch down and shape into rolls, or coffee cake. Let rise until double in bulk, 1/2 to 3/4 hour. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F., 20 to 25 minutes for rolls, 25 to shape into rolls, or coffee cake. Yield 3 dozen medium-sized rolls or 2 twelve-inch coffee cakes.

The appearance of all rolls and buns is improved by brushing the tops with milk, egg and milk, egg and water, or sugar and water solution. To preserve shape, be sure to allow sufficient space between them during the rising period.

VARIATIONS OF ROLLS

Soft or Crusty Rolls: Cut off small uniform pieces, fold sides under until top is smooth and dough is round. For high, soft rolls, place close together on baking sheet; for crusty rolls place 1 inch apart; for very crusty rolls place in greased muffin tins.

Cloverleaf Rolls: Shape very small pieces of dough into balls, brush with melted fat and place 3 balls in each muffin tin.

Finger Rolls: Cut dough into uniform small pieces, shape into balls. With the palm of the hand roll until of desired length taking care to make them smooth.

Crescents: Roll dough 1/4 inch thick and, using a sharp knife, cut in 3-inch squares. Brush with melted fat. Starting at one corner, roll to opposite corner, pressing the points firmly down while rolling. Bring the two ends almost together to form the crescent.

Knots: Roll dough 1/2 inch thick, cut in narrow strips and roll with palm of hand into 8-inch strips. Tie in a loose knot.

Cinnamon Rolls: Use 1/2 the recipe. After rising, roll dough in a rectangle 1/2 inch thick, brush with melted fat and sprinkle with a mixture of 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/2 cup raisins. Roll like a jelly roll and cut in 1-inch slices. Place close together in a greased pan, cut side down.

Butterscotch Rolls: Use 1/2 the recipe and follow directions for cinnamon rolls omitting cinnamon and raisins and sprinkling the dough with 1/4 cup brown sugar in place of the white sugar. Cream 1/4 cup butter with 1/4 cup brown sugar, spread on bottom of pan or individual muffin tins and place sliced rolls, cut side down, on the mixture.

ARCHBISHOP AND 13-YEAR OLD BRIDE—Archbishop Gyula Feherary, 34, of the Mariavit church, of Hungary is shown with his bride, Irdiko, 13, after they told newsmen they were "the happiest couple in Budapest." The handsome archbishop is momentarily without a church for his church was dissolved by state decree on January 1, 1948, when all foreign relief funds were cut off. The archbishop was born in Hungary but brought up in Poland. He returned to Hungary 10 years ago to organize his own branch of the Roman Catholic Church. His sect uses the Catholic ritual but does not accept celibate priesthood.
