Mountains For Parks

Public Relations Council Would Have Hays and Oldfield Set Aside

Plans to have Mt. Hays and Mt. Oldfield set aside as Provincial Parks areas were discussed last night at the Public Relations Council's monthly meeting. The Council felt that, by having these areas set up now as Provincial Parks, the people of Prince Rupert and the many visitors would have natural and scenic beauty spots within easy reach of the city for years to come.

The Relations Council received a letter from the city informing them that the site they proposed for a proposed Auto Court was parks property and not available. However, the city clerk has been instructed to furnish a list of other suitable properties that could be used by local or outside persons to build proposed auto courts.

Many letters from all parts of the world were received by Secretary H. F. Glassey. Among these were letters from Harry Kazanjian of Rhode Island and Mrs. Jack Rowe of Philomath, Oregon, requesting information on this area. Another letter was received from David Cornish, Holy Trinity School, Somerset, England who requested information as he is studying this area of Canada.

Among those present at the meeting were the chairman Mr. Mussellam, H. F. Glassey, Mrs. Marvin Kullander, R. G. Moore, H. M. Daggett and D. Owens.

Radio Show Is Screened

Picturization of a popular radio show, "My Friend Irma" makes a riotous screen comedy which opened at the Capitol Theatre here yesterday and continues to the week-end. Marie Wilson, who created the lovable crackpot of radio fame, repeats the role in the uproarious screen entertainment and is co-starred with Jon Lund, Diana Lynn, Don DeFore, Jean Martin and Jerry Lewis.

The radio show is followed with fidelity on the screen. The basic radio structure has been retained but embellished to allow for new plot situations. In addition to Miss Wilson, the original Prof. Kropotkin and Mrs. O'Reilly are played by Hans Conried and Gloria Gordon respectively.

The story concerns Irma's efforts to marry her shiftless boy friend and his conniving attempts to get Irma's roommate to marry her millionaire boss in the hope of getting some of the millions. He also figures on making a fortune out of a poor but talented singer. What Irma does to trim the triangle down to the right twosome causes additional complications and a riot of fun.

The songs "Here's to Love," "Just For Fun," and "My Own, My Own" are featured.
