Vancouver Charter Yacht in Port—Waterfront Quiet Picketing Starts

Visitor in port and tied up at the Canadian National dock at the first of this week has been the 136-foot twin diesel powered yacht Marabelle of Vancouver having on board Mr. and Mrs. Wright and guests. The party numbering eleven in all, were heading for a cruise as far north as Skagway with calls at intermediate points. They are doing some leisurely fishing, having left Vancouver August 15, coming north by easy stages. On the way south the party plans on doing some mountain goat hunting in the Butedale area. Owned by Dr. Ballard, Vancouver dog food manufacturer, the Marabelle is commanded by Capt. Edward Gray, former well known skipper of Canadian National Steamships and one time master of the steamer Prince Rupert. He retired from the CNSS service in 1943 and for a time during the war was located in Prince Rupert.

Quiet—doleful quiet—reigned again on the local waterfront today as the railway strike continued and the Canadian National wharf, deserted by checkers, remained locked up. This was in melancholy contrast to the usual busy Wednesday with the traditional "boat from the south" which failed to arrive owing to the cancellation of the weekly voyage of the steamer Prince Rupert. Pickets—totalling eight in number—have appeared on the approaches to CNR shops and wharves, keeping discreetly off railway property on which it would be illegal to trespass.

The Apostolic Faith mission ship Lower Light was in port over the week-end returning south from a cruise to Alaska areas.

C.P. ss. Princess Louise, Capt. W. C. Hubenet, was in port Saturday southbound from Alaska enroute back to Vancouver. Embarking here were Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. H. J. Grogan, Miss Peggy Grogan, Hall Templeton, J. S. Black, D. F. Jahnke, W. Henderson, Mrs. D. Sweet, Miss D. Sweet, R. Strachan all for Vancouver.

Union steamer Comtlan, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points and sailed at 4:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints. By special arrangement, the vessel was handled at the strike-tied Canadian National dock on this uncompleted voyage.

Commerce And Industry Seen

Centering the industrial display room at the Civic Centre carnival and fair are displays by Bill Scuby and a joint display by Woodbill Products and Mattson's. Scuby's display is featured by three live male mink as well as two mink coats. The display by Mattson's and Woodbill Products features just about every product needed for the home. A male Kobuk mink was supplied by A. Mattson of Star Mink Ranch and a male silverbuck and a male pastel by T. N. Rowe of Shawatlans Lake.

Turning right on entering the room, one finds a display of excide batteries and Johnson Sea-horse motors by W. R. Love Electric Co.

Next comes McLean and Rutherford's showing of typewriters and an adding machine.

Wallace's Dept. Store is showing what the well dressed woman will wear from the skin out.

Then comes the Penguin Shop's showing of toys and novelties.

Another fur exhibit that held the attention of spectators was that of Fowle-Ruttie Ltd. Geo. Fowle is at the booth showing the masterpieces in the display to those interested.

Island City Builders' Supplies have displayed paints and a small heating unit. Then comes a fine exhibition by Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association of dairy products covering the complete field.

Edward Lipsett shows radios, motors, flashlights and fire extinguishers.

In a small but delicate case George Cook shows silver tea and coffee urns, watches, rings and an exquisite cameo centering the whole.

Canada Packers Limited concentrate on Margene.

A thorough selection of plumbing fixtures is set forth by Saanich Plumbing and Heating.

The Rup-Rec booth displays many of the smaller items of

Theatre Is Progressing

Work on the construction of the new theatre at the junction of 1st Street and Third Avenue is progressing rapidly. The heavy part of the work such as the roughing in of the building, plumbing and steamfitting is now sixty percent complete. Tomorrow it is expected that the pouring of 160 yards of concrete will start and as soon as that is completed the finishing will proceed rapidly. The building is due for completion by late fall. Much of the work done is not evident on the surface. There is a considerable amount of tunnelling done along the front, side and back to take care of the plumbing. The screeds for seating have been made and this set-up will provide ideal elevation for seeing the pictures. Screeds for the carpet have also been laid and for the exits.

Dawson & Hall are contractors.

SUGAR REFINING
The refining of sugar is one of Canada's oldest industries, the census of 1870 showing four establishments in this industry with 360 employees and output worth $4,000,000.

gymnasium equipment and small indoor games. B. C. Packers show many of their products including canned salmon and oysters, filets and frozen fish.

The Prince Rupert Health Unit's photographic display of rheumatism and arthritis points out the desirability of early diagnosis and treatment.

The room has taken a lot of work. It is well for people to take a look around to see what is taking place in Prince Rupert.
