"City Across River" Exciting

"City Across the River" now playing at Capitol Theatre here, deals with a Brooklyn boy gang. The picture features Stephen McNally and a cast of new faces. Radio and newspaper commentator Drew Pearson delivers a prologue commentary.

Excitement and drama of the city is incorporated in the film, which is adapted from Irving Shulman's sensational novel about juvenile crime in Brooklyn's tenement areas, "The Amboy Dukes."

With the aid of New York police, the players traveled to many tough areas of the city, as well as some of the nice sections, to record the story for filmgoers.

THE TESTING TIME

Statistics in the United States show that most divorces occur in the middle of the fourth year of marriage.

A letter from J. S. Bill requesting the name Piggot Avenue be changed, was read. The council decided that endorsement of the change by other residents of the avenue would have to be presented in a petition.

Renewed memberships in the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities, and the Union of B. C. Municipalities.

Adopted a Finance Committee report of the sale of lots 19 and 20, Block 24, Section 8 to S. G. Olsen for $180, the assessed value, subject to veteran's rebate. The committee also recommended that the Wage Committee use every effort to negotiate the 1950 agreements as early as possible.

Adopted the report of the Telephone Superintendent from January 1 to 15 as recommended by the Utilities Committee. The committee also notified the council in their report that regulations recommended by the Telephone Superintendent were printed in the telephone directory.

PRISONERS HELPED

After a fierce blizzard struck the British Isles in January, 1947, it was necessary to use prisoners of war to help dig a way to rescue marooned villages in Kent.

ARCTIC BATTLEGROUND—This Canadian Army map shows the general area along the Alaska Highway where combined Canadian and United States forces will carry out manoeuvres during exercise Sweetbriar next month. Allied defence forces based at Whitehorse will be given the task of detecting an "enemy" force that has theoretically landed at Anchorage and Fairbanks. The exercise will be carried out under severe winter conditions with temperatures expected to drop to around 50 below zero. (C. P. Photo)
