TEDIOUS—Storm-weary railroad workers are silhouetted against a southern sky as they trudge along a rail line hidden by heavy snows. The men have been armed with shovels and snowplows for most of the winter to maintain rail connections to towns. Some localities have been cut off for weeks from all communications.

Unlimited Sale of Margarine and Liquor Laws Demanded

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—Resolutions favoring the unlimited sale of margarine in British Columbia and the repeal of the liquor laws were unanimously passed at a meeting of Victoria County Council Association.

Members demanded that the provincial government be taken into consideration in the repeal of liquor laws and the wishes of the people.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Two factors are influencing the weather over the province today. The southern edge of British Columbia is covered by bands of cloud moving up from the remnants of a storm off the California coast. All northern regions and as far south as the Cariboo are clear due to the approach of a large area of high pressures from northern Canada.

There are still no indications of really unsettled weather and the forecast is for variable cloudiness and a few showers in the extreme southern portions of B.C. and mainly clear skies elsewhere.

Forecast
Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Clear today and tomorrow. Light northerly winds. Cold at night. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow: Port Hardy 30 and 50, Massett 25 and 48, Prince Rupert 28 and 50.

PRINCE RUPERT SHOULD BE SCENIC CAPITAL OF CANADA

"There is nothing comparable with it in North America," enthuses C. Lathie Lockhart of Tennessee over the scenery of the Skeena River valley as viewed from the railway and highway in a letter to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. Even Jasper is inferior to its "incomparable beauty," says Mr. Lockhart.

Mr. Lockhart, who visited this district in 1946 and 1948, suggests that suitable postcards should be made on the Skeena River area, that the Canadian National Railways should run its trains by daylight along the river and that car and motor launch tours be organized out of Prince Rupert. More adequate accommodation for tourists here is also suggested.

"Prince Rupert ought to be the scenic capital of Canada," asserts Mr. Lockhart whose interest and enthusiasm is being acknowledged by the local Chamber.

MORROW, NEW SKATING QUEEN—Suzanne Morrow, old ice artist from Toronto reigns as queen of the figure skaters. She succeeds senior singles champion Susie Clonch before a mink-coated crowd of 100 at the Minto Club in Ottawa, gave Ontario skaters the lone "outside" victory was wrapped up by Roger Clonch, 21-year old dark-horse entry from Vancouver, who took senior title.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—John L. Lewis is preparing for another contract battle with the mine operators and has ordered a two weeks' shutdown of United States coal mines east of the Mississippi, beginning Monday. The order involves 400,000 miners.

Vancouver Wants B. C. Rail Director

Vancouver Board of Trade is "thoroughly in sympathy" with the stand of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in seeking representation for British Columbia on the board of directors of the Canadian National Railways. R. T. Rose, executive secretary of the Vancouver Board of Trade, has so communicated with the local Chamber which recently sought Vancouver's support for the move to have a British Columbia member of the board.

Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of transport, recently advised the local Chamber that the west is already represented on board by a Saskatchewan man (living in Toronto) and that there was at present no vacancy on the board.

VETERANS WOULD TAKE TO LAND

Half a dozen local war veterans indicated their intention of taking up land in British Columbia yesterday when they interviewed Walter Tennant of Kamloops, regional advisor of the Veterans' Land Act Board and the Soldiers' Settlement Board, who was in session at the Canadian Legion rooms yesterday. Sitting with Mr. Tennant were George Anderson and Thor Sollen as local representatives. Mr. Tennant, who arrived in the city Thursday night left last night by train on his return to Kamloops.

Government Sustained

Accorded Three Favorable Votes Yesterday But One is Close

OTTAWA (CP)—Division bells rang three times in the House of Commons last night as the government beat off two Opposition motions of non-confidence and won its own bid for adoption of the Throne Speech.

The votes came this way:

- 180 to 12 against a Social Credit motion to declare non-confidence because of "studied indifference" to use Social Credit theories to remedy economic ills.
- 124 to 62 against a Progressive Conservative motion which simply declared the government had lost confidence of Parliament.
- 97 to 89 to adopt the Throne Speech, signifying approval of the government's legislative program as outlined in it.

The government motion—comparable to a vote of confidence—went through and Prime Minister St. Laurent was given a loud ovation from the Liberal benches.

Doctors had said earlier that the operation was not a dangerous one. It is known as lumbar sympathectomy—cutting of a small nerve centre near the spine to allow the blood to flow more freely through leg arteries.

SMUTS IS REJECTED

Provincial Elections in South Africa Show Stronger Favor For Segregation

JOHANNESBURG (CP)—Prime Minister Daniel Malan's Nationalist forces gained the majority of seats in South Africa's provincial council elections fought on his "apartheid" policy of racial segregation.

Final returns following voting Thursday show the Nationalists won control of Transvaal Province from Jan Christian Smuts' United Party. They also sharply cut Smuts' edge of majority in Cape Province legislature and strengthened their own hold in Orange Free State. Smuts was, as usual, strong in Natal.

Axis Sally is Now Waiting Sentence

REVOTE FOR FAIRVIEW BREAKWATER IS ASSURED IN WORD FROM OTTAWA

According to information received from Ottawa by Edward T. Applewhaite, local Liberal candidate, there will be included in the estimates of the Dominion Public Works Department for 1949-50 an item for the construction of a concrete and rock breakwater at Fairview Bay. Mr. Applewhaite points out that it is not yet known whether this item has yet received the approval of the Department of Finance, but he is confident that the item will go through and that, after approval by Parliament, plans for the work will shortly be under way.

It is understood that the total project will involve somewhere in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars. The sum of $75,000 for this purpose was included in the supplementary estimates for 1948-49 but was not expended.

SOURCE OF POWER—Labrador contains abundant sources of hydro power in the surging rivers that dot the interior of the country. Many of these rivers are located near the iron ore bodies. Largest river in Labrador is the Hamilton River with the famous Hamilton Falls, one of the largest in North America. This is a photo of an unidentified river coursing through a canyon in the southern section of the country. (C. P. Photo)
