Between the BASKETS

The city basketball league gets under way again tonight with three crucial games scheduled. In the Junior fixture the league leaders, North Star, meet Kinsmen. These two teams have been crowd pleasers all season and the fans who come early have a treat in store.

In the Intermediate division, Merchants meet High School and a loss for High School would put them in a third-place tie with Morgan's, necessitating a sudden death game for a play-off position.

Co-op plays Savoy in the Senior division and Savoy needs to win tonight to confirm their third-place standing. A loss would tie them in third place with Bo-Me-Hi and a mathematical chance of elimination when they meet in the Bo-Me-Hi-Savoy fixture on Tuesday night.

The second round of the hoop-shoot gets under way tonight with 22 entries playing off in that round and eight entries finishing off the first round competition. Here are tonight's contestants:

Junior half-time—Bill Martin and Dennis Waters (first round), Ray Davidson and Bill Becker (second round), H. Blackaby and Harold Webber (second round).

Junior-Intermediate interval—Melvin Moore and Bill Morrison (second round), Jordan Smith and Robert Woods (second round), Danny MacAfee and Derek Letourneau (second round).

Intermediate half-time—Steve Dumas and Chas. Forbes (second round), Dave Owen and W. Davidson (first round), Sid Scherck and Everett Pierce (first round).

Intermediate-Senior interval—Glen Carlson and Ole Slatka (second round), Bill Sunberg and Danny Bill (second round), Minor Simonsen and Fred Calderoni (second round).

Senior half-time—Ted Arney and Rupert Holkestad (second round), R. E. Montador and Stan Cornwell (second round), Angus MacPhee and Sonny Beynon (first round).

Among the ladies, M. Flynn of Pushovers bowled a high single game of 276 and a three-game total of 683 for an average of 228.

KINGPINNERS HAVE TOP SPOT IN MIXED BOWLS

Kingpinners nosed into top position in the mixed five pin bowling league Thursday night on the strength of a two-game victory over their arch-opponents, Headpinners, who until now have been almost undisputed leaders in the 18-team league. Kingpinners however, have no decisive position, being only one point up. With 25 points as against 24 for both Headpinners and Maceys' XXX.

The session saw a considerable amount of high-calibre bowling, although the top scorers were not exceptional. D. Ward of Wingers rolled a total of 714 for the men's high three-game score, averaging 238, while S. Comadina of Kingpinners bowled the highest single game with a score of 387.

Among the ladies, M. Flynn of Pushovers bowled a high single game of 276 and a three-game total of 683 for an average of 228.

Aiyansh Team Flies North

The Aiyansh basketball team returned to its home village Friday afternoon in Skeena Air Transport's Seabee plane, piloted by Tom Scheer, of Terrace. Earlier this week the team had been flown from Aiyansh to Terrace and came here by train for the tournament.

HIGH 4 ENDS IN LEAGUE TOP

The final game of the Juvenile League was played Thursday afternoon with Borden Street defeating their rivals King Edward by the close score of 18 to 17. King Edward made a fast comeback in the final minutes of the game but just fell short of victory as Borden managed to hold on until the final whistle. Play-offs of league will be starting next Thursday with the decision as to how they will be run off being decided today.

INCIDENT OVER STOCKHOLM GAME

STOCKHOLM—United States hockey teams, in competition here at the Olympic Stadium, took part in something more than hockey when they became involved in fist swinging side lines. The Swedish Ice Hockey Association protested to the American Embassy. Police had to be called, in order to calm down players and spectators—all of whom were excited.

The Sudbury Wolves, from Canada, had also come in for strong criticism from the Association for their rough and ready style of playing in the tournament.
