However, the American representative announced that no such session would be introduced.

SENIOR CHAMPS—CO-OPS WIN SECOND GAME OF FINALS TO TAKE HOOP TROPHY

Co-op 42, Savoy 33

Coach George Howe's Co-op basketball squad are shopping for silver polish today to wipe the year-long tarnish from the Civic Centre trophy, emblem of the city senior "A" division championship, which they won last night by defeating Savoy 42 to 33 in the second game of the best-of-three final series.

Mr. Howe's lads literally won the symbolic statuary in the fourth quarter of one of the hardest fought games in a season that has seen themselves and Savoy's leading competitors in the three-team league rise to great heights in the point-getting scramble.

Breaking away from a 27-27 tie at the end of the third quarter, the fishermen scored 15 points before the final whistle called a halt to organized senior "A" league play. During the same period, Savoy's scored six points.

The game put the victory sign on the Co-op team which Saturday night had squeezed a narrow 42-41 triumph over the hard fighting hotelmen in the first game of the final series.

From the scoring standpoint, the game developed into a duel between marksmen Jack Lindsay of Co-op and Joe Davis of Savoy, each of which marked up 17 points for their respective teams. Lindsay was in rare shooting form, as was attested by the fact that out of five free throws he scored five points. He scored 12 points on field baskets.

Davis had a similar number of points on field goals and free throws but missed one free throw in the first quarter, a basket that would have given him a one-point lead over Lindsay in the game scoring.

With the two Holkestad brothers and Davis finding the mark, Savoy emerged from the first quarter with a 13-12 advantage over Co-op, a margin that they increased to 23-19 by half-time.

Lindsay, Macphee and Beynon brought Co-op's score to 27 in the third quarter, tying the game. In the fourth quarter, Lindsay scored five points, Flaten four and Macphee, Ciccone and Beynon each two.

Savoy's scoring was done by four players, Joe Davis, with 17, Mel and Rupert Holkestad, who in a brotherly way, scored seven points each, and Ted Arney, who marked up two. Co-op's scoring was led by Lindsay with 17, followed by Macphee with 9, Beynon with 8 and Ciccone and Flaten with four each.

Co-op—Lindsay 17, Macphee 9, Flaten 4, Beynon 8, Fitch, Ciccone 4, Menzies.

ATOMIC RESEARCH—An atomic energy development rated as second only to the splitting of the atom was announced by the radiation laboratory at the University of California for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. The announcement revealed that mesons—nuclear particles heretofore found only in cosmic rays, and thought by some nuclear scientists to be the force which holds atomic nuclei together—have been produced in abundance by the university's giant 4,000-ton cyclotron. Credit for the development was given to Dr. C. M. G. Lattes of Brazil (shown above at the cyclotron), and Dr. Eugene Gardner, 35, a research physicist at the University of California.

Mr. Dudoward, on Dundas Is. Unworried by "Outside News"

News travels slowly on tidal currents.

Aboard an American Presidential Lines ship, bound from an American port to Shanghai, someone placed a news bulletin in a bottle and dropped it overboard. Charles Dudoward of Port Simpson read the tidings after he had picked up the bottle, drifting off the Dundas Islands recently. He was undisturbed by what he read.

According to the latest news flashes received aboard the President Polk, Shanghai-bound on September 2, 1946, trouble was brewing on several fronts, including Shanghai.

In Shanghai, Chinese nationalists had completed purchase of a quantity of American war surplus equipment and the deal was giving the Chinese communists the jitters.

In Moscow, General Gregorie Semenov was hanged for bearing arms against Soviet Russia and spying for the Japanese and Ivestia expressed the doubt opinion that the cruise of the aircraft carrier Roosevelt to Mediterranean waters was "far from being a goodwill tour."

In London it was announced that valets of King George II of Greece were already packing for the return trip from exile to Athens while at Sofia there were hints that the Bulgarian Royal family were packing to join the Italian King in exile in Egypt.

In Tokyo, visiting American congressional military committee members, after a view of the Siberian coast, called for strengthening of the U.S. position in the Pacific because of the "immediate danger of another Pearl Harbor."

At Paris, Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov left the peace conference for Moscow to talk things over with Stalin. There were hints that Molotov was to be replaced at the peace conference.

In New Delhi, Indian Moslems were under orders to hoist black flags over their homes and business places as a symbol of "Moslem contempt at the installation in office of the Hindu Congress and its satellites."

According to latest advices from the President Polk, things seemed to be a bit touchy in the world capitals but Mr. Dudoward found things peaceful enough on his Dundas Island trap line.

SITUATION QUIET BUT MENACING

R O M E (CP)—YugoSlavia backed out yesterday from its offer to trade Trieste for the Italian city of Gorizia. The YugoSlav foreign ministry voiced regret over the "apparent assumption abroad" that YugoSlavia would insist on obtaining Gorizia in exchange for Trieste. At the same time a ministry spokesman hinted that YugoSlavia might consider some other swap for the great Adriatic Sea port which is now free territory.

Meantime the situation remained quiet but tense in Trieste today, predicted, Communist demonstrations against the suggestion that the city be returned to Italy failing to materialize.

More Allied troops have been dispatched to the frontier to bolster up the civilian police against the possibility of trouble with YugoSlav forces.
