General Motors Defeat Legion

Street-Hotheaded Motors Like Out Wins Over Legion

In last evening's National Cup football competition the General Motors team won from the Canadian Legion by one goal to nil. The result was something of a surprise for the Motors played the first half with only nine men and the second with only ten. The Legion had a full team though they were without some of their regular players.

Playing uphill the Motors had the best of the opening exchanges and Kramer did well to turn Williams' drive over the bar. Smith tested Butler who saved well. Kramer saved from Hermal and then ran out to kick clear. Armstrong cross-passed to Butler but John Wilson checked in time. Touden made a good run and Hermal shot wide. Smith hit the bar and the Motors survived a strong attack. Kramer saved twice and then the Motors went a goal up when Williams contacted a penalty kick at the second attempt. He missed the first try but was given a second chance when Kramer moved before the kick was taken. Smith went clear.

But Reynolds now came on and the Motors had ten players. Touden shot just from Pat Williams' cross. Bowman's cross went just behind. Touden and Grier tried to force the play but Grier cleared. Armstrong fed a long pass to Butler whose shot was blocked.
