Tonight at the Civic Centre Doc Montgomery will again pit youth against experience when he sends his young charges against Co-op for the second time this season. In the first meeting, even though only ten points divided the two teams, something was witnessed which was lacking in the Gordon & Anderson crew. This was the hustle usually required in competitive sport to assure victory. If corrected this should make a great difference to outcome of the league.

It could be that awkward age that is slowing down youngsters like Marshall, Dumas, Gill, etc.

but in my opinion it is their inability to acclimatize themselves to the faster senior pace. For the sake of those who flick the turnstiles, tonight should see a determined crew battling the league leading fish packers. If that determination isn't in evidence there could be serious consequences in the form of a dropping off of attendance at the games. Jim Flaten and Rupe Holkestad, who have been called upon to shoulder quite a load, haven't been showing up to advantage so far and Flaten's effort in trying to stop Ray Spring a week ago was a bit short of the necessary. I am not trying to take any of the glory away from a magnificent effort on the part of the agile Mr. Spring but our James just wuzn't where he ought to be when most of Ray's shots were getting away. You've just gotta be there Jim! I'd also like to see Rupe Holkestad back in his centre spot but then I never won't let the good doctor look after that item.

Kayhi from Ketchikan is due here early in December for their annual meeting with Bo-Me-Hi and it seems there may be a weakness on our squad if some of the lads don't get in there and study. Of course the faculty is getting all the blame from the team members but, fortunately, there are few who see it that way and it is a little early in life for any of those youngsters to feel that their team is more important than studies. That comes a little later boys and you'll just have to wait. So far reports on the Ketchikan team are hard to find but it is expected that the Alaskans will also have few seniors back this season.

Don Forward reports that negotiations have broken down with the famous Chicago Red-heads who were to present themselves here later in the season and it looks as though the girls will not show after all. Gobe Trotters and Carol College, however, are still slated to visit us and, with the usual invasion from Alaska, we are in for some interesting games before spring.

Jack Ewart Is
Art Club Model

At Thursday's Art Club meeting the obliging model was Jack Ewart who donned his fireman's helmet and coat and stood for nearly an hour wielding an axe that seemed to get increasingly heavy. Everyone drew him as quickly as possible and then paused for a coffee interval. After this rest another quick drawing was done, this time of Mr. Ewart in a relaxed position smoking and reading. Some of the drawings were left at the Civic Centre to be displayed in the show case.

With people in the city beginning to help the club by acting as models, it is going to be possible to meet oftener. The next meeting will be on November 30 when Duncan DeKergemoux will be responsible for finding a model.

Tickets for the draw on the Jean Cameron picture were issued to members, a limoleum cut of the picture being printed on the front of each book of tickets. The draw will be on December 14, the last meeting before Christmas.

It was mentioned what excellent artistic material there would be for a poster on "Does Prince Rupert Wish to Join the Alaska Music Trail?" It is hoped that a poster contest could be run through the schools and city on such a vital cultural topic.

bench has suddenly developed a Jekyll and Hyde personality and was fit to be tied at many points in last Tuesday's terrific struggle between Co-op and Brownwoods. Alex Bill, playing coach of Brownwoods, had his moments also and at one point when his lads just didn't seem to be doing what they were supposed to do, elected to stage a shooting display from around centre that was nothing short of sensational. I believe it would be much handier if the backboards were removed as they always seem to get in the way when Alex tries his balcony shots. At that though the personable Alex seems to get through to the spectators somehow.

Is there anyone in town that can tell young Bill Sunberg what is wrong with his basketball? Bill, "Monk" to most of us, seems to have all the requisites of a fine athlete and proved it this year in baseball yet he cannot seem to get into stride with the Brownwoods club and is getting a bit disheartened with himself. Keep at it fell!
