Q. In a case where a brideto-be has no father or mother and no near relatives, in whose name may she send her wedding invitations?

A. If she desires to send out formal invitations, these would have to be engraved: "Miss Mary Smith and Mr. John Brown request the honor of your presence at their marriage,

Q. When circumstances force a man to let a woman whom he for Luncheons, Dinners has been accompanying go to her home alone in a taxi, should he pay the driver?

A. Yes, it is the courteous thing to do. Merely ask the driver to estimate the fare, then add a little more, with a tip.
