shorty fur coat. Ticket was drawn during the dance.

While the dance was in session, Mrs. J. A. Teng and Mrs. W. S. Noble were at the door and Mrs. A. M. Ingalls cornered many a lady and gentleman at the door as she relieved them of a dollar or two for the raffle on the fur piece.

Music for dancing was supplied by the Dukes and the event was successful and enjoyed by the participants.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark McLean of Horseshoe Bay, Vancouver, arrived at the end of the week by car from the south and expect to be here for several days. Former resident of Prince Rupert and one time member of the typographical staff of the Daily News, Mr. McLean is now identified with the Investors Syndicate.

Rupert Club Holds Dance
 Colorfully laid cabaret style refreshment tables and soft lighting effects featured the annual dance of the Prince Rupert Club which was held last week at the Moose Temple. The affair attracted a crowd of about 100 persons who had a delightfully enjoyable evening. W. F. Stone was convener and acted as a genial master of ceremonies. Music was by Andy McNaughton's Orchestra.
