to welcome the Shah ngeles soon when he guest of President and the state departthen interviewed the princess said she has no desire for a Hollywood.

Country and the second of the second and Division

1 Leeds United mit. West Ham United

Preston North end City 1, Grimsby Town

ffield 0. Southampton

th Argyle 1. Coventry

Round English Cup

United 1. City 9. Fleetwood 1, Watford 2,

14. Goole Town 1.

and Northfleet . Torquay United 3. Cilling-

Town 2, Brighton and

Southend

Town 4. Walsall 1. 13, Exeter City 5. field 4, Northshields? apton Town 4, Wa! hamstow Avenue 1. Forest 1, Bristol City 0 Fort Fraser. County 4, Tilbury 0. alon 2, Kings Lynn 1, Athletic 4, Stockton Tale 1, Wealdstone 0. 4 Rochdale 3 port 1. Barrow 1 (tie).

synthonia 0

mere Rovers 2, Halifax with 2, Aldershot 2 (tie) High Albion 0, Moseley 1.

M 4, Grantham 1. Town 4. Romford

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port-"Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest." PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1949. VOL. XXXVIII, No. 277.

PROVINC.

WO PRINCE RUPERT MEN CRASH INTO BRIDGE NEAR Pt. ALBERNI

Saturday Night" Notes Mayor's Busy Civic and Business Career

Since her inauguration as Mayor of Prince Rupert almost three years ago, Nora Arnold has managed to brighten the eyes of national interest in this city by her personality and activities and now, of medical expenses for income on the verge of her retirement, a national magazine tax purposes, E. T. Applewhalte, has taken note of her record.

"Saturday Night," published, n Toronto, includes Mayor Arnold among the roster of outstanding Canadians in its per- 1. U.D.E. SCOTES sonalities department with a sketch written by Lynn Har-rington, an eastern writer who frequently visits the north In Fall Sale nold's three-year record as Mayor "remarkable," noting that within that period, Prince Centre last Thursday afternoon glamorous day and evening wear Rupert has developed into British Columbia's fourth city, of the Imperial Order, Daughters probably saw visions of a deflatwith a population of some 10,-

Professional Women's Clubs of Canada selected Nora Arnol as their "Woman of the Year." ions, sip tea and nibble at delic- : A booth consisting of raffle pliment of all.

a rough deal," commented the bounced from wall to wall. hackie. "I don't care where you! go, cab drivers are always peddling something, usually liquor, show with a black crepe afteraren't they? Well here, you noon dress, topped by a black can't do nothin'—can't hardly Persian paw three quarter length tea room booth out being pinched."

estimate the value of friend- ported English wool suit and full charge were Miss Barbara Teng, belongs to the Canadian Club with accessories. Soroptimists and is on the execu- Third in line was Mrs. M. F. | Cashier was Mrs. J. A. Teng added toll of property and lives launched by the torrential rains tive of the Union of B.C. Muni- Stuart with a three-piece model and tickets for the silver fox fur, in the states of Washington, Ore- which accompanied the storm. cipalities, a body which carries beige tweed suit with tangerine won by Mrs S. A. Keilback, were gon and Montana where eight no little weight with the pro- ascot tie hat, gloves and acces- sold by Mrs. J. E Boddie. Bill vincial Legislature. And since sories. A rico green two piece Scuby donated the fur. she was chosen their woman of wool jersey dress worn with a THE BAZAAR the year, she also belongs to short length dark brown Can- The bazaar was commenced by the Business and Professional adian Squirrel jacket and a green a parade of the standard bearers Women's Club.

Are Praying

Central Interior Timber Industry Hard Hit by Mild Winter

Owing to the unseasonably fashioned other styles. aild fall which has left the bush

& Lumber Co. who left last week brown moire tafetta cocktail were held at night. Mrs. J. Stew- west on a 1,000 mile front. for Vancouver after having dress with green accessories and art of the Queen Mary chapter Today the giant storm, spawned spent the past two or three weeks also an apricot lace and net for- was in charge of both bridge and last Wednesday off southeast in the interior, visiting as far as mal evening dress with accessor- crib with Mrs. George Hill and Japan, blew with greatly diminreally "praying for winter," Mr. black velvet cocktail dress worn | High man in the bridge games Hanson says. Whereas by Octo- with pearl accessories and her was A. Worthington with low by ber 1 last year the first snow had final ensemble consisted of a H. Halverson. Ladies' high bridge fallen in the central interior, flesh pink tafetta evening dress prize was won by Mrs. Mattson never leaving during the entire with black sequin trim and acces- and Mrs. S. Pierce had low score. Synthonic 3, Billing- winter, so far this fall there has sories to match. been no snow and the ground is Bristol still bare and soft.

LOCA	L TID	ES
Tuesday, No	vember	29, 194	19
gh	9:16	18.3	feet
	21:34	16.2	feet
w	2:41	8.2	feet

15:43

The article terms Mrs. Ar- Many Attend Afternoon and Evening Affairs on Thursday was made.

> Held successfully in the Civic of the Empire, was attended by ing bank account. nearly 300 who were out to see Various booths were into operparade the latest in ladies' fash- miration by the crowd

Tribute to her business lead- bazaar were models attired in and Mrs. J. Moran.

Mrs. G. Green commenced the

by Mrs. D. McRae.

model suit.

Mrs. McRae modeled a cocoa Vivian Wrathall al lof the Camoads bogged down at a time tan afternoon dress and full brai chapter. per industry in the central in- and silk net evening dress worn and Mrs. J. Stewart poured. Several sawmills are tied up be- cocktail dress-black and lime J. Moran, first prize and Mrs. R. vice. cause they cannot get their logs with sequin trim—and a mahog- Krock, Phil Tomlinson, Mrs. J. Phenomenal Storm in and a considerable number of any shot velvet and moire eve- Donaldson and Mrs. H. S. Parker, 16 was a phenomenal fall storm

Such is the report of Olof Han- were worn by Mrs. Munthe.

The people of the interior are Miss Bulger returned with a bridge and crib respectively.

pomegranate shade shoes and lady. accessories, was modeled by Mrs. cessories to match. The ladies enoyed the show of black marino crepe evening dress capacity of a man, was low.

Transportation And Income Tax

OTTAWA - Speaking on budget resolutions in the House of Commons recently, when various members were asking for ambu-M.P. for Skeena, stated that, if city dwellers who could be served by ambulance when needing transportation were to receive this benefit , then people in such districts as Skeena should be allowed transportation requisite for medical or hospital treatment, possibly extending even to plane hire.

No change in the existing law and evening, the annual bazaar styled by the models but hubby

"Last year, the Business and ladened booths, watch models ation and were visited with ad-

The article lead off: "It was acies and, finally in the evening, prizes was in charge of Mrs. C. it three times in the city elec- auditorium from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. work booth was attended to by ership of the city government newest styles loaned by Mrs. H. Mrs. B. Young and Mrs. H. B. although a back-handed one, is they were scrutinized at which articles were displayed by Mrs. considered the warmest com- time suggestions, criticisms and R. W. Whidden, Mrs. H. A. Breen appraisals flitted from one mouth and Mrs. Robert Parker. Home "She sure gives us cab drivers to another. An occasional "Ah" cooking was in a booth in charge of Mrs. L. Griffiths, Mrs. J. R. Carr and Mrs. N. R. Young

Mrs. S. A. Keilback and Mrs.

Her Worship doesn't under- Munthe wearing a navy blue im- phant and fish pond booth. In Hardy and Miss Lorna Howe.

hat with fur trim was displayed from local chapters. They were Mrs. A. Gillies, Queen Mary Chap-1 Miss Mary Margaret Bulger ter; Mrs. T. A. McMeekin, Cammodeled a blue and gray "McIn- brai; Mrs. McGaw, Duchess of tosh" tartan two piece girlish Edinburgh, and Miss Iona Hardy of the Haida chapter

Mrs. Green returned wearing a! Tea was served by Mrs. G. lilac shade afternoon dress with Moore, Mrs. A. Gillies and Mrs. matching "Strathmore" hat, a Margaret Stewart, all of the gray squirrel neckpiece and Queen Mary chapter; Miss Deshgloves and accessories to match. ka Penoff of the Haida Chapter Following Mrs. Green the models and Mrs. B. Wick, Mrs. T. A. Mc-Meekin, Mrs. T .Brown and Miss prizes.

ies of pearls and brilliants. | Mrs. S. A. Kielback in charge of ished force across Ontario and Mrs. Wright Davies came out on An amazon shade taffeta and top in the four table crib tournavelvet cocktail dress, worn with ment with Mrs. Croxford as low High man was James Stewart Green and she finished with a and Mrs. W. D. Vance ,in the with black sequin trim and ac- Art Nickerson was winner of ever, mounting to millions of dol- ed when their car crashed into the I.O.D.E. raffled muskrat lars damage, was caused by a bridge near Nanaimo and JUNIOR INSTITUTES COMPETE AT O.A.C.—Competitions among unior institutes held at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, earned for the winners the right to take part in the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto. One of the junior contestants, Mary Schroter, takes time out to make friends with calf. Cattle and poultry judging, and home economics were among the classes of the twoday program.

Southern B. C .Storm-

little surprise to the people of Prince Rupert. They had done attended the dance held in the Mrs. Eric Barton . The fancy | VanCouver S A But One of the feature events of the and Mrs. J. Moran. One of the feature events of the and Mrs. J. Moran. Solated By Tempest has been widespread, but the S. Parker's Exclusive Ladies Wallace were in charge of the complaint of a city taxi driver, Ready to Wear. Moving gracefully plain sewing booth. Knitting

Transcontinental Railways Crippled-Heavy Toll of Life and Property Damage

VANCOUVER (CP)—The storm death toll in W J. Lineham had charge of a British Columbia stood at fifteen today as working turn around on the street with- fur coat, hat, gloves and acces- The single section of the mem- crews labored under cloudy skies to restore comsories. Next came Mrs. Jens bers kept watch over a white ele- munications. The storm, with hurricane winds laden called straight from a dance with rains, swept the Pacific Northwest during the estimate the value of friend- ported English wool suit and full charge were Miss Barbara Teng, weekend and damage totalled millions of dollars to towns were called cut during the Legion Members ship, the article concludes. She flare back platinum grey coat Miss Mary Addison, Miss Iona weekend and damage totalled millions of dollars to

British Columbia alone with, an emergency "air lift" was established between Kamloops and Vancouver today to fly out storm stranded transcontinental railway passengers. Kamloops is 258 miles east of here. Similar air shuttle service was set up between Fenticton and Vancouver.

ber of Canadian Pacific passen- of traffic. when they are usually well solid- length coat; a turf tan faile cock- Mrs. Bert Withers, Mrs. J. gers are stranded. Railway offied by frost and snow, the tim- tail dress and an orchid satin Stewart, Mrs. R. W. Whidden ficials could not say up to early this afternoon when it might be terior is almost at a standstill, with rinestone accessories. A Winners in the raffle were Mrs. possible to restore railway ser-

men are temporarily unemployed. ning dress and silver fox cape respectively won second to fifth that wrought havoc in a furious sweep which smacked British fic Great Eastern Railway has 40 and 50; Sandspit and Prince From Vancouver (Friday)—C. son, head of the Hanson Timber | Mrs. Stuart styled a cinnamon | Bridge, cribbage and dancing Columbia and the Pacific North-> the midwest of the United States. Central British Columbia eastward from Prince Rupert and the prairies pretty well escaped its of the crew of the tug George deadlines except for a duststorm in southern Albreia.

Gusts reached a peak at Cu Bank, Montana. In British Columbia an 85-mile an hour blast at Sandspit in the Queen Charlotte Islands was the height of the floods, rockslides and washouts plunged into Alberni Canal.

In British Columbia the picture three-storey was chouse full was this: Transcontinental telephone ettes. lines to and from silenced by rockslides in Fraser Canyon, It was doubtful if service would be restored to-

Four-boat ferry service was the only artery out of West Vancouver where 13,000 residents were Canadian National Railways isolated since Saturday noon. officials said that special Trans- Rains had washed out the Capi-Canada Airlines and Canadian lano bridge, only link to Lion's Pacific Airlines flights had been Gate Bridge leading to Vancouarranged to bring out some 275 ver. At least 100 Canadian Army Canadian National Railways engineers toiled through the westbound passengers who have night to erect a Bailey Bridge been waiting at Kamloops since over the swollen Capilano. It Saturday when rockslides tore was completed this morning and out the roadbeds. An equal num- was carrying a limited amount, > where 9.2 inches of rain fell. 250 persons.

With two bridges out, the Pac suspended service.

Both Fraser Canyon and Hope Princeton highways are out, 17 may be three weeks before the former is open again. The latter may be open later today.

Six of British Columbia's known storm dead were members McGregor which capsized off Victoria Saturday; three persons drowned near Kamloops when their automobile skidged from the rain-soaked highway into Trapp aLke; a man drowned in the swirling waters of Capilano River, West Vancouver; two The most of the damage, how- men killed and two other injur-

Two City Men Killed in Car Accident Near Port Alberni

Oscar Steinberg and John Brentzen Lose Lives -Three Others Seriously Injured

PORT ALBERNI (CP) -- Two Prince Rupert fishermen lost their lives Sunday and a third had both legs amputated as a result of a traffic accident in which their car crashed into a bridge near here.

zen, crew members of the Nelson Bros. herring and his seconder, C.P. Balagno Close of the nomination period is at noon on Thursday.

For Mayor

Big Blaze In Old Coventry

COVENTRY (-Smoke-grime firemen, led by a man in rumpled lives in Prince Rupert. evening dress, Saturday fought the biggest fire here since air- Rupert resident. His wife lives craft rained down fire bombs here. He formerly was employed and destroyed the centre of the by Bacon Fisheries. city during the blitz raid in Nov- | ver, suffered a fractured leg ember 1940.

The man in tain and white tie was also injured. was the fire care of Coventry, W. Greenhalgh, who had been

Fire engines from four other night to prevent fire from spreading to factories.

The fire started in a huge food, Christmas fare and cigar- ly meeting. They were O. Anton-the remembers and a secretary to be to be the control of

HOCKEY SCORES SATURDAY Chicago 7, Detroit 2

Boston 3, Toronto 3 CUNDAY Chicago 6. Toronto 3 Montreal 6, Detroit 2

New York 1, Boston 1

New York 1. Montreal 5

THE WEATHER

Forecast

A 20-year old rain record was North Coast Region - Cloudy AIR PASSENGERS shattered on the North Score with showers today. Rain to- To Vancouver (Saturday) - H. flash floods temporarily isolated late tonight. Little change in J. Manson, C. L. Yates. highs tomorrow—at Port Hardy, Hansen and K. Harley. Rupert, 38 and 48.

Killed were John Steinberg, 23, and John Brent-packer Amlac, which had put into Port Alberni for the weekend. George Foster, also of Prince Rupert, required amputation of both legs as a result of his injuries. The three, with another man Nomination pepers of Robert whose name was not known McKay, for mayor, were filed here this morning, were oh with Returning Officer H. D their way back to Port Alberni, Thain at the city hall this morn- where the herring fleet had put ing. His sponsor is W .J. Scott in, when their car crashed into the Nanoose Creek bridge.

Steinberg is survived by his wife here and his step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McIver, 720 Sixth Avenue

John Brentzen, who lives on Sixth Ave. East is survived by his wife and five children. He ris a member of a well-known Port Simpson family. His mother, Mrs. Mary Brentzen,

George Foster also is a Prince

Thomas Hovden of Vancou-

and other injuries. Another man, Charles Kerr,

Lighteen New

elected to membership in the local branch of the Canadian of Legion at Wednesday last monthson, W. Baxter, J. Davidson, J. C. Franks, Miss Ada A. Garnett, C. F. G. Graham, I. J. Jessome, R. Jones, T. Littlefair, D. K. Llewellyn, R. A. Morley, C. Morrice, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Pyper, W. J. Raymond, J. Richards, J. A. Strand, L. V. Tattersall and H. S. Ward. The meeting paid special tribute to the Ladies Auxiliary for their work in the many events during "Legion Week" Handicap English billiard tournaments, which have proved so popular during the past two winters, will be started the beginnnig of next month and entry lists will be posted in the Legion Hall this week-end.

morrow. Southwest winds (20 Kraupr.er, Mrs. W. Fudger, A. F. At Squamish, forty miles north | mph) increasing to southeas' 30 | Smith, H. R. Gillard, Lt. Com. G.

temperature Lows tonight and To Sandspit (Saturday) - A.

Perry and J. G. Anderson.

PUBLIC MEETING

Civic Centre Auditorium, Nov. 30, 1949 at 8 p.m.

Speaker: DR. M. M. COADY

Director of the Department of Extension St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N.S.

> Sponsored by: The Department of Extension of the University of British Columbia and the

Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association

EVERYONE WELCOME

(279)