creation and stimulation of BIG LEAGUES the country is advocated by OPEN TODAY Thomas J. Keen, former deputy superintendent of Headingly jail, in Manitoba, as a 'sureagainst crime. "It is remarkable how few of those in Headingly jail have any active interest in sport," he said. "If they had Philadelphia Athletics at Bosspent more time in such activities they would probably not have ended up in prison."

Since he first entered the service as a prison guard 32 years ago, Mr. Keen has witnessed SECOND SHOW son cinditions. The advance has been particularly noticeable, ne DRAWS CROWD said, in the higher standard of food provided, along with better library and recreational facilities. "Today the men are allowed to listen to radio programs, broadcast through the wards by a public address sysare the pig favorites."

The display was formally opened from the floor by Dr. R. G. Large, president of the Civic Centre Association of Prince Rupert who congratulated Mr. Ross and Miss Slinn and their assistants on the splendid success of their work. It was a striking revelation of the usefulness of the Civic Centre. During the program Civic Centre Director Don Forward spok ebriefly to also thank the leaders and the participants and to bespeak public support of the service and other organizations which had definite projects for community betterment. He also referred to the honor which Prince Rupert basketballers had brought to Prince Rupert in winning the provincial championship. Had it not been for the facilities and service of the Civic Centre this might not have been possible. At the close of the proceedings Neil Ross thanked and congratulated all those who had taken on the show and the various others on the whose assistance had been a contributing factor. The leaders were Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, Mrs. Ken Yeland, Mrs. Don McKay, Miss Jean Faught, Emil Blain, John Thompson, Ted Parkhouse.

Accompanists were Miss Frances Moore, Miss Eleanor Moxley, Mrs. J. M. Black and Miss Barbara Teng. Announcer was R. G. Moore.
