FOOD TO BRITAIN

Rotary Club's Gift Dispatched at First of Week, Including City's Canned Salmon

Fifteen cases of food and clothing for the fishing town of Poole in England, collected by the local Rotary Club and to be distributed by the club in Poole, was dispatched at the first of this week to Vancouver whence it will be transhipped by the Johnson Steamship Line to London enroute to Poole. The shipment included 24 cases of canned salmon purchased from the Mayor's Fund here.

High School pupils contributed a large quantity of canned goods and the Boy Scouts assisted in connection with the collection. Lindsay's Cartage looked after the packing and shipping.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Cambrai Chapter Defers Election of Regent

Retiring Regent Mrs. W. S. Noble was presented with a lovely silver meat platter in recognition of her leadership last year by Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, at its annual meeting in the Civic Centre on Tuesday night. The meeting installed a new slate of officers with the exception of regent, election of which was deferred until a later date.

Officers are:

First Vice-Regent, Mrs. C. G. Ham.

Second Vice-Regent, Mrs. K. Lindseth.

Secretary, Miss Vivian Wrathall.

Treasurer, Mrs. S. A. Saville.

Educational Secretary, Mrs. Crawford Moore.

Echoes Secretary, Mrs. Victor Grant.

Work done by the chapter during the year was shown in the annual reports. Welfare contributions totalled almost $100 as was also the value of food parcels shipped overseas. Collections of clothing were valued at about $200. Retiring officers were congratulated on the extent of their work.

Mrs. Noble reported that activities of the Chapter in March will include the Cambrai Birthday Party in the Knights of Columbus Hall and the annual dinner at the Civic Centre.

The monthly raffle was won by Mrs. George Rorie.

STOCK FEEDING TRIALS

CANBERRA (CP)—The Australian Meat Board is financing a three-year experiment in the topping-off of beef cattle with grain sorghum. Tests will be made under field conditions in north-Western New South Wales and similar experiments with other supplementary foodstuffs are being considered.

Cullin; Sick and Visiting, Mrs H. M. Foote and Mrs. F. M. Kempton; Immigration, Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby; Cancer Fund, Mrs. Earl Becker.

The retiring regent was presented with a pretty vase as a token of appreciation for her work during the year, the presentation being made by Mrs. Kielback.

The new regent was appointed delegate to the provincial annual meeting to be held in Victoria April 12, 13 and 14.

It was reported that the sum of $84 had been expended to send food parcels to needy Britons. Members were urged to redouble their efforts in this respect. Seventy-six articles of clothing were also sent at a total cost of $141.30.

The educational committee reported that the sum of $20 had been donated to Borden Street School, magazine subscriptions to Terrace High School and Borden Street School as well as seventy-five calendars. Members had assisted at the annual Empire Day celebration.

The child and welfare report showed $135 donated to the Civic Centre and $24.50 to assist the aged and the blind.

One new member, Mrs. Margaret Stewart, was initiated.

A letter of thanks from the Duchess of Edinburgh (Princess Elizabeth) thanking the order for its gift of an ermine wrap was read. A balance from the gift fund was used for equipment, supplies and special foods for the Queen Elizabeth Hospital.

It was decided to join the Prince Rupert Film Council by payment of a fee of $2.50.

Plans were discussed for a daffodil tea to be held Easter Monday.

Following the business session, delicious refreshments were served.

CROWNING "MISS UNITED NATIONS OF 1948"—The sixth annual ball of the United Nations' club to provide food and medical aid for children of Europe and Far East was held in Washington, D.C., this week with representatives from 42 lands participating in the pageant and vieing for the title of "Miss United Nations of 1948." The title was won by Miss Nora Martins, daughter of Ambassador and Madame Carlos Martins of Brazil. The lovely senorita from "below the border" is pictured being crowned by Dr. John R. Steelman, assistant to President Truman, as Attorney-General Tom Clark presents Miss Martins with a cup. Looking on at right is John Davis Lodge (R) of Connecticut.
