BATHAMPTON, Somerset, Eng. — Rats ate flowers and candles on the altar of St. Nicholas Church.

If this Chinese boy could be sure of receiving one bowl of rice a day he would consider himself fortunate. Because of the food lack in China, thousands of children are dying. Millions are diseased. In all of China there are only two hospitals to care for children. It is the purpose of the Canadian Appeal for Children to bring food and clothes and medical supplies to destitute boys and girls. Appeals similar to the Canadian Appeal for Children are being conducted simultaneously in 26 other countries. Canada's quota has been set at $10 million dollars. PAID VISIT TO KITKATLA

Edward Bolton of Essington Reports on Brotherhood Convention

KITKATLA—To present a report on the recent convention of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia at Bella, Cooles, Edward N. Bolton of Port Essington, district vice-president, accompanied by Louis L. Starr, paid a visit to Kitkatla a few days ago. The trip was made aboard the fish packer Josie May.

Chairman of the meeting was Chief Councillor Matthew Hill who, on behalf of the people of Kitkatla, extended a welcome to the visitors. Mrs. Matthew Hill spoke on behalf of the Sisterhood.

Arrangements for the meeting were in the hands of Joseph Innes and hospitality was extended to the visitors at the home of Mrs. Edward Gamble, widow of the late chief, luncheon being served by members of the Sisterhood.
