Saved By God, Girls Believe

VANCOUVER — Two school-girls, missing for 25 hours on snow-clad Mount Seymour, were found safe and unharmed yesterday about twelve miles from where searchers were looking for them.

Marilyn Long and Freida Newfield, aged 13, stumbled down the treacherous slopes of the 4700-foot mountain and came out on a deserted stretch of beach on Indian Arm, 20 miles east of Vancouver.

"God saved us. We prayed all night," the girls said. "We were just going around in circles. We didn't know where we were."

FURTHER HERRING QUOTA GRANTED

A joint appeal by fishermen and companies for an extension of the herring quota in the northern sub-district has received favorable attention at Ottawa, it was learned here yesterday at the local office of the fisheries commission that another 20,000 tons of herring may be caught in the sub-district, fishing to commence at noon January 7. In approximately 20,000 tons of the quota for the central sub-district.

Every time we tried to find the road it just wasn't there. The girls became lost Tuesday when they were separated from a Sunday School hiking party.

Carroll College Evens Up Series With 67-63 Victory Over Rupert

Montana's Carroll College evened their series at one victory for each team in an exciting rough and tumble basketball game last night at the Civic Centre. The final score was 67 to 63. It was a real dog-fight in the final half as Prince Rupert struggled to overcome a 34 to 23 lead. Fouls were handed out right and left by chief arbiter John Comadina and umpire Bill Davidson with the college boys losing Flynn and Schadweiler in the third period and Prince Rupert losing Spring and Syd Scherk in the third and Don Scherk in the fourth period.

Carroll took an early lead to head the locals 17 to 9 at the end of the first quarter. In the third period the Jets managed to score an equal number of points, each team getting 17, and in the final the Jets led by fast-moving Reg Lavigne outscored the winners 23 to 16 but it was just too late to pull the game out of the fire. Reg Lavigne scored 11 points in the fourth period rally and led the team with 19 for the game. Prince Rupert didn't have their shooting eye in the two first periods, missing shot after shot. Rupert Holkestad was in top form, scoring 14.

For the winners, Finton was the outstanding player with 20 points, and along with big Wall Romasko and playmaking Weaver, teamed to make things mighty tough for the Jets, Kelly for the Helena team played an exceptionally fine game, getting six points, and really hustling all the way.

In spite of the fact that it was a dull first half and a very poor game all the way from a basketball point of view, the spectators went away happy, after the exciting second half. The up-and-at-'em attitude of both teams provided plenty of scrap and action, and there should be a big house tonight to see the play-off and final game of the series.

PRELIMINARY
Hi-Golds had it all over Fashion in the Intermediate League prelim which they won 22 to 12. It was one of the lowest scoring games of the season, with both teams just a bit lax, after the holiday. Blackaby was high scorer for the winners with 6, and Jim Hebb led Fashions with 5. Tonight Hi-Gold met with Hi-Green in the preliminary, and the word is that the Greens aim at taking one from their school rivals, the Golds.

Line-ups:
Carroll College — Flynn 6, Schladweiler 4, Romasko 15, Weaver 13, Kelly 6, Finton 20, Niklas, Skillestad 3. Total—67.

Dick Irvin, then captain of Chicago Black Hawks, suffered a fractured skull in collision with Red Dutton of Montreal at Chicago 23 years ago tonight. Irvin later coached Toronto Maple Leafs before going to Montreal Canadiens.

Mike Karakas, an important cog in Chicago Black Hawks' drive to the Stanley Cup in 1937-38, was shipped to the minors 11 years ago. He was replaced in the Chicago nets by Paul Goodman, first of a long succession of Chicago netminders.

Sylvanus Apps, great centre for Toronto Maple Leafs of the NHL, was named Canada's outstanding athlete of 1937 in the annual Canadian Press poll 13 years ago. The former British Empire and Olympic Games pole vaulter won the Byng Trophy for sportsmanship in 1942 and was appointed Ontario Athletic Commissioner before he retired from hockey.

WONDER—One-armed Boyd Bule, amazing figure of sport, comes to Prince Rupert with the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team next week. Playing his fourth season in the Globetrotter organization, Bule is six feet, two inches tall and 24 years of age, the crack forward with only a right arm. His other was amputated after an auto accident in his youth. Bule's eye for the basket, passing and general all-round floor play are something to watch. He handles himself on the court better with one arm than many cagers do with two. Boyd starred at J. C. Carbon High School in his home town of Pine Bluff, Arkansas. He averaged 18 points a game for four seasons. In his senior year he captained the preps to 18 consecutive victories and was selected as all-state. Later he played three years at Tennessee State College. With the collegians he averaged 16 points a game and led the quintet to the Midwest Conference tournament championship in his senior year. Bule came to the Globetrotters direct from the campus. His quiet demeanor and pleasing personality have made him a great favorite with players and fans alike.

92-Year-Old Lady Northern Pioneer

FLIN FLON, Man., (P)—Mrs. C. M. (Ma) Bell 92, is the "Grand Old Lady" of Manitoba's north-land.

She has lived in this northern mining region for more than 30 years. She knew Flin Flon when it was just a mining camp, with a few shacks built near the mine headframe. The boys in camp came to know of her many kindnesses. They were always welcome at her home.
