ALASKA MUSIC TRAIL—
More Outstanding Artists
Are Coming To Civic Centre

The Alaska Music Trail is cleverly depicted by Mrs. J. T. Harvie in the above block cut. She pictures the various northern cities on the Music Trail as musical notes. The Civic Centre Association is now conducting a campaign to obtain enough members for the local concert series, with a minimum objective of four hundred. Concerts booked for the 1950-51 series are as follows:

Injured In Auto Smash

Horace (Buster) Hale is resting at his home, Eleventh Avenue East, and H. R. Hale, who sustained minor chest injuries and hand scratches, was able to be back at work with Mitchell & Currie this morning following a traffic accident last Thursday morning. Richard Strachan, owner and driver of the car involved, was unhurt but the car was badly damaged.

It was on the slippery Thursday morning that the car containing the three men slid off Eleventh Avenue near the junction of Wantage Road as it was approaching McBride Street and McClymont Park. The vehicle went over the 8-foot embankment and landed wheels up against a telephone pole. The three men were still inside. Strachan was able to climb out one window but another had to be broken to enable the elder and younger Hale to be extricated.

The regular Valhalla Hall lodge dance was attended by 40 couples Saturday night. Music was by Mike Colussi and Gunnar Varfeldt.

N. A. Bekatov and daughter, Miss Nadia Bekatov, returned to the city on the Chilcotin last evening from a holiday spent at Masset Inlet.

Mr and Mrs. A. Cormie were passengers aboard the Camosun yesterday bound from Vancouver to Alice Arm. Mr. Cormie is superintendent of the Torbrit mine at Alice Arm.

To avoid conflict with the I.O.D.E. fall bazaar which was held Thursday, the Port Edward Anglican bazaar, originally to have been held on the same date, has been postponed to December 5.

Baptista Sola, co-ordinating engineer for the Celanese Corporation of America, arrived in the city at the end of the week from New York to spend a few days here in connection with the construction of the Columbia Cellulose Co. plant at Watson Island.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Micholuk arrived in the city on the Camosun yesterday afternoon from Alert Bay with their newborn baby. Mr. and Mrs. Micholuk were returning to the city from Vancouver on the Prince George but the vessel had to put into Alert Bay with Mrs. Micholuk and the baby was born in the hospital there.

There is no finer gift than a piece of furniture for your home. We are offering you some pre-Christmas specials in CHAIRS OF DRAWERS (Mr. and Mrs. and Singles), END TABLES, etc., while they last. CHRISTIE'S WOODBILT PRODUCTS, 1st Avenue and McBride. Telephone Blue 720. (23b)

Hundreds Ai
Fish Dinner

Four hundred persons had dinner at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Saturday evening when the Ladies Aid, of which Mrs. Husoy is president, served for several hours a tasty repast featuring the popular luau and fish cakes—the luscious special preparation of grey cod and the fish cakes of ling cod and halibut with brown gravy, topped off the fish and vegetables were generous portions of lemon apple and raisin pie. The ladies had a busy time catering to the continuous procession of diners.

Mrs. A. Husoy was convener and Mrs. B. Pedersen and Mrs. M. Poulsen were cashiers. The servers were Mrs. Richard Giske, Mrs. T. Fossen, Mrs. A. M. Martinussen, Miss Corrine Helde, Miss Margaret Giske, Miss Joyce Strand, Mrs. E. Rasmussen, Mrs. Rudolph Olsen, Mrs. M. Hetland and Mrs. Alf Jensen. In charge in the kitchen were Mrs. R. Webber, Mrs. Anton Dybbhav, Mrs. I. Eldsvik, Mrs. K. Kjelbot, Mrs. Harry Hanson, Mrs. Harold Felland, Mrs. Chris Berg, Mrs. H. Stangbye, Mrs. Julius Johnson and Mrs. G. Mostad. Men of the church council assisted in cooking the fish and washing the dishes.

As a prelude to the dinner there was a brief musical program in the church auditorium to which Mrs. Earl Solland and Miss Mardel Solland contributed with organ and piano duets while Robert Jensen played violin solos, accompanied by Mardel Solland.

Catholic Bake Sale Is Success

Nearly $40 was realized at a home-baking window sale of the Annunciation Home and School Association at Lyons store Saturday.

The bake sale, for the benefit of the Annunciation School, was in charge of Mrs. M. J. Saunders, Mrs. W. A. Pierce and Mrs. L. Telseth.

STORK ALIGHTS ON POWER BOAT

Mrs. Gus Collins and baby boy are going well at the Prince Rupert General Hospital and should soon be leaving for home at Port Essington.

The baby was born aboard the power vessel Cecil W on which Mrs. Collins was being rushed into the city by Lee Wing. The stork alighted on board the Cecil W, as the vessel was entering Prince Rupert harbor. On board, besides Mrs. Collins and Lee Wing, were Mr. Collins and a woman companion with Mrs. Collins. A safe delivery was made and doctors at the Prince Rupert-General Hospital expressed satisfaction.

Verna Lesoway Shower Honoree

Miss Thelma Hetland and Miss Mary Postuk were hostesses at a delightful miscellaneous shower at the latter's home last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Verna Lesoway whose marriage to Michael Munizaba is to take place shortly.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with green and mauve streamers and bingo was played by the honored guests in which little prizes were won.

The highlight of the evening came when little Marjorie Pavich presented the bride-to-be with an armful of colored balloons featuring the bride's bouquet in which were little rhymes hinting where the gifts were hidden.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were: guest of honor, Mrs. E. Pavich, Mrs. T. Fenoff, Mrs. E. Olson, Mrs. J. Gurvich, Mrs. S. Bill, Mrs. V. Vuckovich, Mrs. Pat Kliz, Alma Whatman, Bertha Dunbar, Thelma Hetland and Mary Postuk.
