Visiting Gyros Are Cheered Here

UNION DEFIES LABOR GOV'T

LONDON (AP)—Railway strikers at the week-end defied a government demand to end their "Sunday only" work stoppages on Great Britain's national railway lines. Engineers and firemen, demanding revised schedules which will not keep them away from home at night, halted their trains on the north-south lines at midnight Saturday for the fourth week-end in a row.

London trainmen are called to a mass meeting today. Another emergency session of the Cabinet is also called.

MENTIONED IN CASE, SUICIDES

WASHINGTON D. C. (AP)—Police said Saturday that one of the men mentioned in the Judith A. Coplon trial Friday had committed suicide here last week. He was Morton E. Kent, aged 48, of Chevy Chase, Maryland, whose throat-slashed body was found floating in the Potomac River Friday night.

Friendly Service Club Visitors Invading City

GYROS FROM SOUTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA, WASHINGTON, OREGON HERE FOR DISTRICT CONVENTION

Friendly Gyros, more than eighty in number, arrived in Prince Rupert this afternoon aboard the steamer Chilcotin, specially chartered for the occasion, from here and there in southwestern British Columbia and the states of Washington and Oregon for their annual district convention. Their gathering is the most important international meeting which will be held in the city this year.

Besides those arriving by steamer, others are coming by train, plane and car. The International President, Leon E. Isaksen of Madison, Wisconsin, and the international vice-president, Russell Carter of Edmonton, are arriving by train tonight.

District Governor Wilson Hunt of Penticton and District Lieutenant Governor Leonard A. Lockett of Seattle lead the main body which arrived by steamer. Mayor Nora Arnold accompanied President Maurice Brydges, Convention Chairman W. J. Scott, Chief Greeter Frank Skinner and practically the entire local Gyro membership which turned out this afternoon to meet the delegates and their ladies who were soon paraded away in waiting cars to convention headquarters at the Civic Centre for registration preliminary to a full program of entertainment, as well as district business sessions, which will mark a big two days continuing into Wednesday and Thursday.

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club has been planning for months to give the visitors a pleasant and memorable time while here. Opening social event will be a reception prior to this evening's dinner and dance.

Business sessions will open Wednesday morning followed by a lunch for the men in the Civic Centre at noon while the ladies are having a luncheon aboard the Chilcotin. Fishing trips, drives or such other diversions as can be arranged for the delegates will take place in the afternoon followed by a beach party at Digby Island or a leisurely cruise aboard the Chilcotin, depending upon the condition of the weather.

Feature events on Thursday will include the official opening by International President, Leon E. Isaksen of the new McClymont Park swimming pool and in the evening the district governor's dinner and ball prior to the sailing of the Chilcotin at 1 a.m. Friday on the return voyage to Vancouver.

Special arrangements are being made for a large public ceremony in connection with the opening of the pool on Thursday afternoon. Each city school has been invited to send a boy and girl to take the initial plunge. The mayor will also be on hand to receive the deed from the Gyro Club to the $10,000 property.

TRUCKERS AT COUNCIL MEET

Bylaw Being Temporarily Relaxed Pending Permanent Amendment

Most of the truckers of Prince Rupert are not taking kindly to the council's efforts to have certain of the city's traffic bylaws enforced, judging from the views expressed by several members of a 12-man delegation that visited the council chamber last night while the council was in session.

The bylaw in question does not permit of angle parking, double parking or parking of vehicles more than 12 inches from the curb. Although the bylaw has been in effect since 1943 it was not until this year that enforcement was strictly carried out. The chief difficulties as far as the truckers are concerned arise in the two blocks of Third Avenue where the absence of a lane on the south side fore deliveries to be made to front entrances of places of business.

For years it has been the custom of truckers to back their vehicles into the curbs when making heavy deliveries. The traffic bylaw rules out this method of discharging and, when representation was made to the council at a previous meeting, temporary authorization was extended permitting heavy materials to be loaded or unloaded when the truck was backed to the curb between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Pat Forman, speaking on behalf of the Fishermen's Co-operative Federation and as manager of the Co-operative Bakery, stated that unloading flour from a truck parked parallel to the curb involved considerable more cost due to the extra time required for the job. He also pointed out that he could not unload flour when it was raining and, consequently, he could not always take advantage of the 1½ hours allowed for angle-parked unloading.

J. A. Lindsay said that, in attempting to take advantage of the 1½ hours allotted for discharge of heavy loads from the angle position, there was a lot of waste through having trucks and men waiting for the deadline at 9:30. He recommended that the time be extended to include at least the hour-and-a-half from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Percy Cameron of Hyde Transfer recommended that for 8 hours each day trucks with heavy loads be permitted to back in and unload on Third Avenue and that cars be prohibited from parking on that part of the Avenue (Continued on Page 7)

Minister, Labor Leader, Candidate, Address Final Coalition Rally In City

Return of Government Held Vital to Future Progress and Prosperity of the Province

An international labor union leader, a provincial cabinet minister and a city business man—the latter two election candidates—last night pointed to continuation of Coalition government as the only way to assure economic expansion and unfolding prosperity in this province.

The trio were Jack Ross, international representative of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers for Western Canada, Hon. E. T. Kenney, provincial Minister of Lands and Forests, and John D. McRae, Coalition candidate for Prince Rupert riding.

Addressing a final, pre-election meeting in the Civic Centre, they based their appeal for Coalition party support on the eight-year record of the government which, they intimated, had placed this province and particularly its central and northern areas, on the highroad to unprecedented development.

The opposition course, they warned, the untried pathway of C.C.F. socialism, would lead to "recession" and withdrawal of confidence on the part of those who would invest capital to exploit British Columbia's rich but unused resources.

COALITION WILL BRING PROSPERITY

Mr. Kenney, who is seeking re-election in Skeena riding, sounded the keynote of his party's appeal when he declared that in preliminary negotiations with the Aluminum Co. of Canada and other big industries which are interested in B.C., the constant question asked him was: "Can you assure us stability of government?"

"That is a question that the people of British Columbia alone can answer," he asserted. "It is the question that they must answer at the polls on Wednesday. If they answer in the affirmative, this province will see such a wave of expansion and prosperity as our pioneers never dreamed of."

The Aluminum Co. of Canada has 100 men on the coast watersheds making engineering surveys of waterpower and dam sites which may mean a $300,000,000 development if preliminary plans mature.

"If that company comes to this coast it will mean the building of the biggest dam in the world, a structure 800 feet high which will create an artificial lake 150 miles long. It will mean an aluminum plant and possibly a fertilizer plant, a steel plant and another pulp mill. They are prepared to develop up to 2,500,000 horsepower of electrical energy.

"The leader of the Opposition says he will repeal the bill which gives the Lieutenant-Governor-in-council power to deal with these people between sessions. Well, I'm the man who put that
