Moose to Operate Excursion August 1

The executive of the Loyal Order of Moose, with Governor C. H. Collins in the chair, welcomed a delegation from the Women of the Moose who had gathered in the Moose Temple Friday night to discuss progress made by various committees who had been charged with formulating plans for an excursion trip to Terrace which would be open to the public. It was reported that the Canadian National Railway officials were affording assistance to the committee in charge and it was decided that the go-ahead signal be given for August 1.

GOOD ROAD HERE

Americans Speak Favorably of Prince Rupert Highway

American visitors in Prince Rupert are increasing in number and most of them have a favorable word to say for the Skeena Highway although the same cannot be said to have the smoothness of the older roads built and maintained through the more distant and thickly populated states and provinces.

Judge W. E. Fisher is leaving tomorrow on the Camosun on a holiday trip to Vancouver and Victoria.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prevent mustard plasters from blistering?

A. Mustard plasters will not blister, and the result is said to be much better, if the paste is mixed with the white of an egg, or with warm camphorated oil, instead of hot water.

Q. How can I save time in spreading butter when making sandwiches?

A. When making sandwiches of ground meat, mix it with creamed butter and spread at the same time.

Q. How can I restore flannels that have become hard and shrunken to their original softness?

A. By soaking them in gasoline.

Better English

By D. C. WILLIAMS

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "As members must conform with these rules."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "eugenics?"
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Heliotrope, heelless, heighth.
4. What does the word "ignominious" mean?
5. What is a word beginning with cor that means "to confirm"?

Answers

1. Say, "must conform to these rules." 2. Pronounce u-jen-iks, u as in use, e as in gentle, i as in lick, accent second syllable. 3. Height. 4. Deserving public disgrace; dishonorable. (Accent is on third syllable). "The thief came to an ignominious end." 5. Corroborate.

BENEFIT DANCE

Aids Injured Football Player

Members of the C.N.R.A. football team sponsored a benefit dance Saturday evening which raised $75 in aid of one of their members, Ed Hildebrand, who was injured in a game at Gyro Park several weeks ago.

Attending the cabaret style function were 50 couples who danced to music from a record player. The dance was held in the canteen of H. M. C. S. Chatham.

Team members shared the work of organization and direction. In charge of ticket sales was Don Nixon, while W. Schwab was at the door. Lloyd Lahti, Don Stewart and James Fraser were in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. R. Reynolds, Miss C. Fraser and Miss R. Llewellyn of the Miller Bay Hospital nursing staff are sailing on the Camosun tomorrow for Vancouver on their way to their homes in Eastern Canada.
