NO TYRO—Norm Applin, 165-pound middleweight of Montreal and more recently Prince Rupert, who will battle Paul Kennedy Portland Negro flash in the main event of the St. Patrick's boxing show at the Civic Centre, is by no means a newcomer to the fistic pastime. Norm has to his credit to date 23 amateur and 68 professional fights and he has won a good share of these battles. Most of Applin's fighting has been done in Eastern Canada, Detroit and the mid western States. His best fight was against Dick Grant, at present contending for the world middleweight crown. At present Norm's ambition is a crack at the Canadian middleweight crown now held by George "Rockaby" Ross and if plans go right this should take place in Rupert or Vancouver about September. One of the only difficulties Norm Applin has encountered while training here is the lack of good sparring partners but he is still in tip top form for his battle with Paul Kennedy on Friday night's fight card. Norm plans to turn a substantial part of his purse over for the promotion of young boxers here in Rupert.

Co-ops Have Hard Fight To Win Play-off Opener

High School Fights to Last Ditch—People's Take Ladies' League, Kinsmen in Junior

Co-Op. have a one game lead in the Senior play-offs as a result of their win over Bo-Me-Hi in last night's senior fixture. It was only in the last minute or two that Co-Op. squeezed out their narrow victory by a 50 to 46 score. The battle was tight from start to finish.

High school was ahead by one point in thefirst quarter. Co-Op. had a one point lead at the half and had increased it to a mere two points at the end of the third. In the fourth quarter High School tied it up at 46 all only to see victory fade with a minute to go when Herb Morgan sank a field basket from just inside the key, followed by two converted free throws for Co-Op. which gave them their four point victory.

It was a tough game to lose and if a fighting spirit had anything to do with it High School might have been declired the winner. Their agressiveness cost them expensive fouls in the last period and lost them Carlson, via the 5-foul route, and Scherk, on a temper flare-up after making four fouls in the last quarter. Ray Spring played a driving game to score 21 points and had the wind knocked out of him going up for a free ball in the final period. Bill McChesney scored ten points but missed seven free throws which could well have given his team the game.

Joe Davis was a tower of strength for Co-Op. His control of the rebounds under both baskets sparked his team to victory and he made a big nine points which was a mighty valuable contribution. Flaten sank several dandies to swish the hoop for 14 and Don Scherk proved his worth with eleven points.

It was an exceptionally fine game to watch and the scoring rally in the third period with each team putting them through with machine-gun rapidity was the finest display of shooting seen this season. In all, fourteen field baskets were scored in less than seven minutes of play.

These two teams meet Saturday night in the second game of the best of three series, with Merchants and Fashion playing their second game as a preliminary.

Lineups:

Bo-Me-Hi—Carlson 5, Spring 21, Scherk 2, Webster 4, McChesney 10, Bill 4, Ratchford, Kristmanson, Sharp. Total 46.

Co-Op.—R. Holkestad 7, Flaten 14, Scherk 11, Davis 9, Arney 3, Beynon 1, Morgan 5, M. Holkestad.

JUNIOR—

Kinsmen vs. Rupert—Kinsmen made it two straight games and won the Junior League play-offs with a lop-sided 35 to 14 victory over Rupert Hotel. Kinsmen coach, Rupert Holkestad may well be congratulated for the smart working team he has made out of these lads. They have come a long way since mid-season and are definitely a much better playing outfit than their opponents—Rupert Hotel.

Rupert Hotel gets the Junior League Trophy presented by the Civic Centre Association. Kinsmen win the McMordie Cup for their play-off victory. Letourneau was tops for the Kin boys with ten points but it was definitely a team effort that won them the silverware. Both teams played clean ball, only 16 fouls being called by Referees Dominato and Husoy. 11 on the winners and 5 on the Rupert Hotel.

Lineups:

Kinsmen — Letourneau 10, H. Blackaby 9, MacKay 6, A. Blackaby 6, Peneff 4, W. Blackaby, McAfee, MacIntosh, White. Total 35.

Rupert Hotel—Morrison, MacB. Farlane 3, W. Stacey, Sather 1, Forman 4, A. MacFarlane, E. Stacey, Donaldson, Marki 6. Total 14.

LADIES—

Peoples vs Doms.—Peoples scored a 31 to 15 victory over Doms to take the Lathes play-offs two straight. Dom's started out well, outscoring People's 6 to 4 in the first period but faded rapidly from then on with People's taking over the lead in the second quarter. From there in it was People's all the way leading, 10 to 8 aat the half, 24 to 11 at the end of the period three and winning by a 16-point lead.

Rusty Thain, for People's, had a big night getting 11 points, followed by Anne Dumas with 8. Betty Hamilton was high for Dom's with 6. Fouls were few, only nine called on each team. This marks the end of the Ladies' League till the 1950 - 51 season.

Lineups:

People's—Budnich 4, Howe 6, Bill, Bussy, Thain 11, Dumas 8, Pottle 2. Total 31.

Dom's.—Hamilton 6, Kildal, N. Youngman 5, Currie 2, L. Youngman, Paul, Smier 2, Williams. Total 15.

EX-CHAMPION MINK FARMER— Ex-world heavyweight champion Max Schmeling has now definitely given up the fight game and is taking a more restful pastime, that of mink breeding. He has 65 mink in his farm, in Hollenstedt, Germany, among them four which were donated by friends in the U. S. Here Max critically examines one of his mink in a cage.
